Employees employed by Advantaged Care will be employed in one of the following categories. At the time of engagement the Employer will inform each employee in writing whether they are employed on a full time, part time or casual basis. 11.1 EMPLOYEES

(a) Full – Time Employees

A full time employee is one who is contracted for 38 ordinary hours per week on a permanent basis, which may be averaged over a week, a fortnight, or a four week period. Although the actual hours of work may vary from week to week, with some weeks greater than 38 hours and other weeks less, the employee will not work in excess of 76 ordinary hours per fortnight or 152 ordinary hours in any four week period.

(ii) Before commencing part-time employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours (which are their contracted hours) to be worked per week or fortnight and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours.

(iii) The terms of the agreement in (ii) may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.

(iv) By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Employee, a part time employee may work in excess of their contracted hours on a daily, weekly or fortnightly basis and be paid at the ordinary rate for such extra hours. This arrangement may occur so long as on a daily basis, the shift worked is no more than 10 hours, or the hours worked are no more than 76 hours per fortnight,. All hours outside of these limits must be paid at the applicable overtime rate.

- a) At the request of a part-time employee, the hours he or she works will be reviewed by the Employer, at no more than an annual basis.
- b) Where an employee who requests a review is regularly working more than their specified contracted hours, the employee has the right to request the contracted hours be adjusted by the employer to reflect the hours regularly worked, having regard to the provisions of (c) and (d) immediately below.
- c) The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated into any adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a result of an employee being absent on any leave and is expected to return. Examples include but are not limited to periods of annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers' compensation, or other leave associated with prolonged illness or injury.
 - (ii) If the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in resident needs.
- d) The employer has the right to decline the incorporation of additional hours, however generally, agreement of the employer shall be given so long as reasonably practicable and operationally sound for the current and foreseen future running of the facility.
- e) Any adjustment of contracted hours resulting from the review identified in this Clause should, however be such as to reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised in the workplace.

11.3 CASUAL CONVERSION

- (a) Where a casual employee has been rostered on a regular and systematic basis for a period in excess of 26 weeks, the employee has the right to request conversion to permanent employment:
 - (i) on a full-time basis where the employee has worked 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week (excluding overtime) throughout the period of casual employment; or
 - (ii) on a permanent part-time basis where the employee has worked a regular number of hours each week or fortnight (depending upon the roster) throughout the period of casual employment. Such part-time engagement may be on the basis of the same number of hours as previously worked; however the hours must be capable of fitting within the existing shift and rostering arrangements. Other arrangements may be offered by the employer and accepted by the employee.

- (b) The employer may consent to or refuse the request, but shall not unreasonably withhold agreement to such a request.
- (c) Casual conversion will not apply where a casual has covered absences of permanent staff that are expected to return to work, or where the conversion of such casual hours does not fit in with the Employer's plans for operational efficiency or sustainability.
- (d) Where a casual employee is refused conversion, they may apply for and be considered in the first instance, for any permanent position that becomes available in future.

12. ARRANGEMENT OF HOURS, RDOs AND BREAKS BETWEEN SHIFTS

- (i) Shifts for each full time and part time employee shall be arranged on a fortnightly basis to suit the business operational needs of Advantaged Care. This includes taking into consideration business fluctuations and resident needs.
- (ii) Hours for casual employees will be determined on a shift by shift basis dependent upon the needs of the Employer.
- (iii) For permanent and casual employees, each shift shall consist of no more than 10 ordinary hours worked, with a minimum payment of 4 hours per shift.
- (iv) A minimum break of 8 hours shall apply between each shift. A longer break may be provided to enable the employee time for adequate rest between shifts. Consideration shall be given to Work Health and Safety requirements at all times.
- (v) Hours must be arranged so that each employee shall be entitled to no less than eight full days free from duty in each 28-day cycle or four full days in each fortnight, or two full days in each week. These free days shall be deemed rostered days off or RDOs. Where possible such RDOs will be consecutive.
- (vi) At all times, the Employer shall give due consideration to Work Health and Safety requirements where requests or requirements to work on an RDO are made. If in any doubt about the Employee's health or levels of fatigue, the Employer may rightfully decline any requests for extra work on RDOs.

- (iv) Notwithstanding, the breaks may be reduced to eight (8) hours by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee.

The roster shall be displayed where practicable at least two weeks prior to the first shift in any roster and in any event no less than one week prior to first shift in the roster.
- b) Notwithstanding, sub-clause (a), an employee's roster may be changed at any time by mutual agreement to enable the service of the employer to be carried on where another employee's absence is unplanned, or unforeseen circumstances arise, or in an emergency. The employer shall undertake in such circumstances to provide the employee with as much notice as possible and communicate the changed roster.
- c) Subclause 15.1(b) above, shall not apply where the only change to the roster of a part-time employee is the mutually agreed addition of extra hours in accordance with Clause 11.1(b) (iv) to be worked such that the part-time employee still has two rostered days off in that week or four rostered days off in that fortnight, or eight days off in each 28 day cycle as the case may be.
