14. Banking Of Hours

14.1 To ensure the 'Banking of Hours' process is managed in a professional manner in accordance with this Agreement

14.2 Part time employees are employed on an agreed number of hours to be worked each week with an understanding that although excessive overtime is not expected, there will be occasions when additional hours worked may be required. These additional hours worked by Part time employees are banked manually into the 'Time in Lieu' ('TIL') book by the either the Chief Financial Manager and/or Payroll Staff and/or the Clinical Manager/DON and the book is available to staff at all times. The 'Time in Lieu' system has been developed to 'bank' hours when the Centre is busy and that the banked hours can be taken when the Centre is quiet and doctors are away.

14.3 The employee is expected to complete their time sheets with ordinary hours worked, sick leave, annual leave or 'time in lieu' to make up their agreed hours for the fortnight. Employees are encouraged to consult the Facility Manager or Business Manager should they have any query with regards to their hours worked / paid or seeking clarification of type of leave taken.

- 14.4 Annual leave or 'TIL' approval should be sought by employees at the earliest possible convenience to avoid disappointment as limited numbers of employees can be on leave at any time. All employees should understand that the 'TIL' system should not be used as a means to build up time or to replace annual leave. At the end of the calendar year in December, 'TIL' hours are reconciled by leave taken or leave paid at the beginning of a holiday period. As such, on return in the New Year, annual leave should generally be utilised as a means to make up any major shortage of hours particularly in the month of January.
- 14.5 Management and employees are expected to monitor the "TIL" book with the following considerations:
- "TIL" is not a substitute for annual leave

- (3) The employee shall also notify the employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the employer's capacity to comply with paragraph (1) of this subclause.

43. Superannuation

- 43.1 The subject of superannuation is dealt with extensively by legislation including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993. This legislation, as varied from time to time, governs the superannuation rights and obligations of the parties. Such contributions shall be remitted to the approved fund on a monthly basis. The minimum contribution is 9% at the commencement of this Agreement.
- 43.2 The employee shall notify the employer of their choice of approved fund within 28 days of commencing employment. Should the employee fail to do so the employee has the right to make contributions to the employer's default fund.

The employers default fund is the HESTA Super Fund.

- 43.3 In addition to the employer's statutory contributions to the Fund an employee may make additional contribution from their salary, and on receiving written authorisation from the employee, the employer must commence making contributions to the Fund in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992.

43.4 Superannuation fund payments will be made in accordance with trust fund deeds.

43.5 Salary Sacrifice to Superannuation

- (1) An employee can elect to sacrifice a portion of salary to superannuation. Such election must be made prior to the commencement of the period of service to which the earnings relate and be in accordance with relevant legislation.
- (2) Salary sacrifice to superannuation means the option of making additional superannuation contributions by electing to sacrifice a portion of the gross earnings (pre tax dollars). This will give the effect of reducing the taxable income by the amount for salary sacrifice.
- (3) Employers will not use any amount that is salary sacrificed by an employee to count towards the employer's obligation to pay contributions under the Superannuation Guarantee legislation.
- (4) Contributions payable by the employer in relation to the Superannuation Guarantee legislation shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the employee under this Agreement in the absence of any salary sacrifice.
- (5) Any additional superannuation contributions made in accordance with this clause shall be paid into the same superannuation fund that receives the employer's Superannuation Guarantee contributions.
- (6) Any allowance, penalty rate, overtime payment for unused leave entitlements, other than any payments for leave taken whilst employed, shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the employee in the absence of any salary sacrifice to superannuation. Payment for leave taken whilst employed will be at the post-salary sacrificed amount.

44. Redundancy

44.1 For the purposes of this clause, "continuous service" shall be interpreted in the same manner as "service of a worker" as interpreted in the Long Service Leave Act 1955 as amended from time to time.

44.2 Introduction of Change

- (1) Employer's duty to notify –
  - (i) Where the employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes. The employee may bring a representative, including a workplace representative, to any meeting. The employee will be advised of this in writing by the employer prior to the meeting.
  - (ii) "Significant effects" include termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required, the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure, the alteration of hours of work, the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs.
- (2) Employer's duty to discuss change
  - (i) The employer shall discuss with the employees affected, the introduction of the changes referred to in sub-clause 44.2(1) of this clause, the effects the

- (ii) The discussion shall commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in sub-clause 44.2(1) of this clause.
- (iii) For the purpose of such discussions, the employer shall provide to the employees concerned all relevant information about the changes, including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees, provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would adversely affect the employer. Provided that the making of any positions redundant shall not be deemed to be confidential information for the purposes of this Agreement.

44.3 Redundancy

(1) Discussions before terminations

- (i) Where an employer has made a definite decision that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing done by anyone and that decision may lead to termination of the employee's employment, the employer shall hold discussions with the employees directly affected.
- (ii) The discussions shall take place as soon as is practicable after the employer has made a definite decision which will invoke the provisions of sub-clause 44.244.2(1) of this clause and, in any case, prior to the beginning of the period of notice required by sub-clause 44.4 Termination of Employment of this clause. These discussions shall cover, inter alia, any reasons for the proposed terminations, and measures to avoid or minimise the terminations, and measures to mitigate any adverse effects of any terminations on the employees concerned.

- (2) For the purposes of the discussion the employer shall, as soon as practicable and, in any case, prior to the beginning of the period of notice required by sub-clause 44.4 Termination of Employment of this clause, provide to the employees concerned, all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including the reasons for the proposed terminations. If the employee is so required to produce such proof of attendance and fails to do so, the employee shall not be entitled to receive payment for such time.
- 44.5 Employee leaving during the notice period - If the employment of an employee is terminated (other than for misconduct) before the notice period expires, the employee shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments to which the employee shall be entitled had the employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice.

Undertakings

In respect of the Central Coast Surgery Centre Pty Ltd - NSWNA Enterprise Agreement 2011-2014, the following undertakings are provided by the employer;

- 1) In clause 12 remove all references to "Other than Director of Nursing" so the clause reads as follows:

12 Hours Of Work And Free Time Of Employees

- 12.1 The ordinary hours of work for day workers, exclusive of meal times, shall be 152 hours per 28 calendar days to be worked Monday to Friday inclusive and to commence on such days at or after 6.00 am and before 10.00 am.

The employer does not require employees to work night duty or be available on call (except during meal breaks). An employee cannot be required or requested to work:

- a) more than 38 hours per week plus reasonable additional hours; or
- b) if the employee and employer agree in writing, an average of 38 hours per week over a period of up to 12 months and reasonable additional hours.

- 12.2 The ordinary hours of work for shift workers exclusive of meal times, shall not exceed an average of 38 hours per week in each roster cycle.

All other subclauses in clause 12 shall remain the same.

- 2) Delete Clause 14 in the original application and replace with the following;

14. Banking of Hours

- 14.1 A full time or part time employee may, by agreement made daily, weekly or fortnightly with their Nurse Unit Manager or DON:

- (1) work less than their daily, weekly or fortnightly rostered or contracted hours and work those hours at a later date; or
- (2) work more than their daily, weekly or fortnightly rostered or contracted hours and take time off in lieu of payment, or may set off the additional hours worked against any owing under (1) above.

- 14.2 An employee who works less than their rostered or contracted hours shall be paid as if those hours had been worked during the relevant period, including payment for any weekend or shift penalties that would otherwise have been due for the time not worked.

- 14.3 An employee who works more than their rostered or contracted hours shall not receive payment for any weekend or shift penalties that would otherwise have been due for that extra time worked.
  - 14.4 Time debited or credited under these arrangements shall all be at ordinary time, i.e. an hour for an hour.
  - 14.5 An employee may not have more than 76 hours in debit or credit at any point in time.
  - 14.6 Employees who have hours in debit must be given first option to work additional hours prior to the use of casual employees.
  - 14.7 The hospital must keep detailed records of all hours credited and debited to employees under these arrangements. Employees must have full access to these records.
  - 14.8 On termination of employment the employer must pay the employee for all hours in credit and may deduct from termination pay the value of any hours in debit.
  - 14.9 Either party shall have the right to terminate an agreement under this clause with two weeks notice.
- 3) in sub-clause 24.5, delete the following, "and shall not, without payment of overtime at the rate of time and one half, exceed:
    - (1) 43 hours in any week; or
    - (2) 86 hours in any fortnight; or
    - (3) 129 hours in any twenty one consecutive days; or
    - (4) 172 hours in any twenty eight consecutive days
  - 4) Delete the typographical error contained in subclause 44.3(1)(ii), where it states "44.244.2(1)" replace this with "44.2(1)", so as to avoid any ambiguity.

A copy of these undertakings will be attached to the Enterprise Agreement and will be distributed to all employees covered by the Agreement.
