 - (iii) casual.
- (b) At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time or casual basis. An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

11.2 Full-time Employment

A full-time employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to Clause 23(a) of this Agreement.

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) Before commencing part-time employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours.
- (c) A part-time employee will be paid a minimum of three hours pay for each engagement except as follows:
 - (i) Part time Home Care classifications will be paid a minimum of two hours pay for each engagement.
 - (ii) All part time employees will be paid a minimum of two hours pay for each engagement on a Public Holiday.
- (d) The terms of the agreement in (b) may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.

- (f) A part time employee may be requested to work reasonable additional hours in accordance with Clauses 23 Ordinary Hours of Work, 29 Rosters and 34 Overtime in this Agreement.

11.4 Annual Review of Part-time Hours

- (a) At the request of an employee, the hours worked by the employee will be reviewed annually.

- (b) Where the employee is regularly working more than their specified contracted hours then such contracted hours shall be adjusted by the employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked, which may include moving to full time employment.
- (c) The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers compensation; and
 - (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (d) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review, should, however, be such as to readily reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

11.5 Casual Employment

- (a) A casual employee is an employee engaged as such on an hourly basis.
- (b) A casual employee will be paid an hourly rate equal to 1/38th of the weekly rate appropriate to the employee's classification plus the relevant casual loading. This casual loading will apply upon the commencement of this Agreement and will increase in the following increments:

First pay period on or after	Casual Loading payable
1 July 2012	22.67%
1 July 2013	23.83%

- (c) Casual employees will be paid the following minimum number of hours for each engagement:
 - (i) Home care employees 1 hour

- (a) A casual employee who has been rostered on a regular and systematic basis over a period of 26 weeks has the right to request conversion to permanent employment:
 - (i) on a full-time basis where the employee has worked 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week (excluding overtime) throughout the period of casual employment; or
 - (ii) on a permanent part-time basis where the employee has worked a regular number of hours each week or fortnight (depending upon the roster) throughout the period of casual employment. Such part-time engagement would be on the basis of the same number of hours as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the employer and the employee.

- (b) The employer may consent to or refuse the request, but shall not unreasonably withhold agreement to such a request. Arbitration of an employee's request for conversion may only occur by agreement of the employer and the union/s.
- (c) Casual conversion will not apply where a casual has covered absences of permanent employees who are expected to return to work.

- (d) The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer as set out at Clause 12.1 except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on their age.
- (e) An employer may summarily dismiss an employee for gross and wilful misconduct. An employee who is summarily dismissed does not receive notice, or payment in lieu of notice.
- (f) Where the employer terminates the employment of the employee and does not require the serving of notice the employer will pay the employee the amount in lieu of working out the notice period.
- (g) In respect of any forfeiture by the employee of wages in lieu of providing notice, the employee may at any time authorise the employer to deduct from their wages payable up to, or on, termination relevant wages payable in lieu of notice.
- (h) Should an employer not receive such an authorisation from the employee, the employer may recover such outstanding amount from the employee in the appropriate statutory tribunal. It is acknowledged that the employee has the same rights to pursue an employer for underpayment in the appropriate jurisdiction.
- (i) In respect of this requirement for an employer to provide notice or pay in lieu of notice under this clause, nothing in this clause shall exclude the application of Subdivision C Division 11 of Part 2-2 of the Act.

- (j) It is the intention of this clause that the employer and employee provide appropriate notice upon termination.

13.4 Employee Leaving During Notice Period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to any payment in lieu of any remaining notice.

Schedule B – Aged Care Classifications

Progression from Aged Care Level One

Employees who are new to the industry and/or have less than three months work experience in the industry may be classified at this level. This level is designed solely as an entry level.

An employee at Aged Care Level One will only be eligible for progression to Aged Care Level Two if, the employee:

- (a) has completed three months continuous employment; and
- (b) has performed basic duties.

Classifying Existing Employees

Information regarding the Aged Care Classification pay point system under Clause 15 – Minimum Weekly Wages:

The pay points under each classification at Clause 15 – Minimum Weekly Wages have been established to assist employers to understand how existing employees will be paid under this agreement.

Each pay point has the letter “A” or “C” adjacent to it, for the following reasons:

For those pay points with the letter A, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA.

For those pay points with the letter C, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA.

The equivalent classifications under those NAPSA’s have been inserted in brackets next to the relevant pay points. The purpose of inserting the equivalent classifications under the NAPSA’s is to provide logical examples of how employees classified under the Aged Care NAPSA’s are likely to be classified under this agreement.

Example B.1:

Aged Care Employee Level One

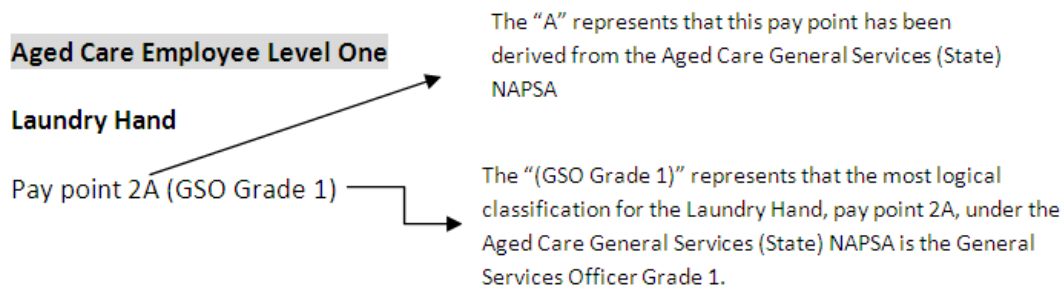

Laundry Hand

Pay point 1C (CSE New Entrant)

The “C” represents that this pay point has been derived from the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA

The “(CSE New Entrant)” represents that the most logical classification for the Laundry Hand, pay point 1C, under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA is the Care Service Employee New Entrant.

Example B.2:

To ensure employees are consistently being progressed in the same pay point system, employers should not progress employees from pay points "A" to "C", ie, from one NAPSA to the other. If progression is appropriate, employees should only progress from pay points "A" to "A" or pay points "B" to "B".

For example, if an employee was appointed as a Aged Care Level One, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A, if this employee was to progress to Aged Care Level Two, the employee would be classified as Aged Care Level Two, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A.

Where there is no equivalent classification under the NAPSA's, the modern award classification will apply.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, reference should also, always be given to the historical definitions, position descriptors and tasks set out in either of the following industry NAPSAs, which applied to the employer prior to 1 January 2010, when classifying employees.

NB: Over time and once the modern award transition process is underway, this pay point system will be simplified for future agreements.

Classifying new employees:

When classifying new employees, employers should give consideration to the relevant NAPSA that would have applied to their organisation, ie:

If an organisation is for profit, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Aged Care General Services (State) Award (now a NAPSA); alternatively

If an organisation is not for profit or charitable, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Services Sector (State) Award (now a NAPSA).

Once this has been established, employers should appoint new employees according to basic duties and indicative tasks under the Aged Care Level 1 to 7, together with the employee's skill, knowledge, experience and competence.

When classifying new employees, an employer may request the employee to provide satisfactory documentary evidence detailing any other 'service' or 'experience' within the industry for the purpose of assisting the employer to appoint the employee in the most appropriate classification. In the absence, of such satisfactory evidence, the employer shall classify the employee at the level for which proof has been provided. For those employees who are new to the industry and/or who have less than three months work experience, employers should classify these employees at the entry level of Aged Care Level One.

Classifying existing Diversional Therapists from the Charitable Sector Aged & Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA and the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA under this Agreement

The pay points under each classification at Clause 15 – Minimum Weekly Wages have been established to assist employers to understand how existing employees will be paid under this agreement.

Each pay point has the letter “A” or “C” adjacent to it, for the following reasons:

- For those pay points with the letter A, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA.
- For those pay points with the letter C, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA.

The equivalent classifications under those NAPSA’s have been inserted in brackets next to the relevant pay points. The purpose of inserting the equivalent classifications under the NAPSA’s is to provide logical examples of how employees classified under the Aged Care NAPSA’s are likely to be classified under this agreement.

Example D.1:

To ensure employees are consistently being progressed in the same pay point system, employers should not progress employees from pay points "A" to "C", ie, from one NAPSA to the other. If progression is appropriate, employees should only progress from pay points "A" to "A" or pay points "B" to "B".

For example, if an employee was appointed as a Health Professional Employee Level One, Diversional Therapist, pay point 1A (First year of experience), if this employee was to progress through pay points through years of service, the employee would be classified as Health Professional Employee, Level One, pay point 3A (Second year of experience).
