12.16.8 There must be an evaluation process at the completion of the first 12 months, or sooner if the employer and affected employees agree. The evaluation process must involve representatives of employees and the employer. 47 PARENTAL LEAVE

47.1 Employees are entitled to parental leave in accordance with the provisions of the Fair WorkAct 2009, as amended from time to time.

47.2 The provisions of this clause apply to all permanent full time employees covered by this Agreement. Permanent part-time employees (as specified) are entitled to parental leave after 52 weeks continuous service. Eligible casual employees are also entitled to prorata parental leave after 12 months continuous service. Full-time and part-time employees, who are eligible for unpaid parental leave, will also be entitled to paid parental leave at ordinary pay, from the date the parental leave commences.

47.3 Eligible Employees are entitled to paid maternity leave after 40 weeks continuous service as follows;

(a) An Employee is entitled to ten weeks at the ordinary rate of pay from the date maternity leave commences. This leave may commence up to four weeks prior to the expected date of birth.

(b) Paid maternity leave may be paid: on a normal fortnightly basis, in advance in a lump sum, at the rate of half pay over a period of twenty weeks on a regular fortnightly basis.

47.4 Unpaid Maternity Leave

An Employee is entitled to a further period of unpaid maternity leave of not more than 12 months after the actual date of birth

47.5 Applications

An Employee who intends to proceed on maternity leave should formally notify the Employer of such intention as early as possible, so that arrangements associated with her absence can be made. Written notice of not less than eight weeks prior to the commencement of the leave should accordingly be given. This notice must include a medical certificate stating the expected date of birth and should also indicate the period of leave desired.
47.6 Variation after commencement of Leave
After commencing maternity leave, an Employee may vary the period of her maternity leave, once without the consent of her Employer and otherwise with the consent of her Employer. A minimum of 4 weeks notice must be given, although an Employer may accept less notice if convenient.

47.7 Effect of Maternity Leave on Accrual of Leave, Increments etc.
When the Employee has resumed duties, any period of full pay leave is counted in full for the accrual of recreation leave and any period of maternity leave on half pay is taken into account to the extent of one half thereof when determining the accrual of recreation leave.

Except in the case of Employees who have completed ten years' service the period of maternity leave without pay does not count as service for long service leave purposes.

Where the Employee has completed ten years' service the period of maternity leave without pay shall count as service provided such leave does not exceed six months. Maternity leave without pay does not count as service for incremental purposes. Periods of maternity leave at full pay and at half pay are to be regarded as service for incremental progression on a pro-rata basis. Where public holidays occur during the period of paid maternity leave, payment is at the rate of maternity leave received i.e., public holidays occurring in a period of full pay maternity leave are paid at full rate and those occurring during a period of half pay leave are paid at half rate.

47.8 Illness associated with Pregnancy
If because of an illness associated with her pregnancy an Employee is unable to continue to work then she can elect to use any available paid leave (sick, recreation and/or long service leave) or to take sick leave without pay. Where an Employee is entitled to paid maternity leave, but because of illness, is on sick, recreation, long service leave, or sick leave without pay prior to the birth, such leave ceases four weeks prior to the expected date of birth. The Employee then commences maternity leave with the normal provisions applying.

47.9 Transfer to more suitable position
Where because of an illness or risk associated with her pregnancy, an Employee cannot carry out the duties of her position, an Employer is obliged, as far as practicable, to provide employment in some other position that she is able to satisfactorily perform. A position to which an Employee is transferred under these circumstances must be as close as possible in status and salary to her substantive position.

47.10 Miscarriages
In the event of a miscarriage any absence from work is to be covered by the current sick leave provisions.

47.11 Stillbirth
In the case of a stillbirth, (as classified by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages) an Employee may elect to take sick leave, subject to production of a medical certificate, or maternity leave. She may resume duty at any time provided she produces a doctor's certificate as to her fitness.
47.12 Effect of Premature Birth on payment of Maternity Leave
An Employee who gives birth prematurely, and prior to proceeding on maternity leave shall be treated as being on maternity leave from the date leave is commenced to have the child. Should an Employee return to duty during the period of paid maternity leave, such paid leave ceases from the date duties are resumed.

47.13 Return for less than full time hours
Employees may make application to their Employer to return to duty for less than the full time hours they previously worked by taking weekly leave without pay. Such return to work is to be according to the following principles:

(a) The period is to be limited to 12 months after which full time duties must be resumed unless otherwise negotiated between the Employer and Employee.

(b) The Employee is to make an application for leave without pay to reduce her/his full time weekly hours of work. This application should be made as early as possible to enable the Employer to make suitable staffing arrangements. At least four weeks notice must be given.

(c) The quantum of leave without pay to be granted to individual Employees is to be by mutual agreement with the Employer.

(d) Salary and other conditions of employment are to be adjusted on a basis proportionate to the Employee’s full time weekly hours of work; ie for long service leave the period of service is to be converted to the full-time equivalent, and credited accordingly.

It should be noted that Employees who return from maternity leave under this arrangement remain full-time Employees. Therefore the payment of any part-time allowance to such Employees does not arise.

47.14 Further pregnancy while on maternity leave
Where an Employee becomes pregnant whilst on maternity leave, a further period of maternity leave may be granted. Should this second period of maternity leave commence during the currency of the existing period of maternity leave, then any residual maternity leave from the existing entitlement lapses.

47.15 Adoption Leave

47.15.1 Eligibility
To be eligible for paid adoption leave an Employee must have completed at least 40 weeks continuous service prior to the date of taking custody of the child. Casual Employees are not eligible for paid adoption leave.

An Employee who has once met the conditions of paid adoption leave, will not be required to again work the 40 weeks continuous service in order to qualify for further periods of paid adoption leave, unless;

(a) there has been a break in service where the Employee has been reemployed or re-appointed after a resignation, medical retirement, or after their services have been otherwise dispensed with; or the Employee has completed a period of leave without pay of more than 40 weeks. In this context, leave without pay does not include sick leave without pay, maternity leave without pay, or leave without pay associated with an illness or injury compensable under the Workers Compensation Act, 1987.

47.15.2 Paid Adoption Leave Entitlement

(a) Eligible Employees are entitled to paid adoption leave of ten weeks at the ordinary rate of pay from and including the date of taking custody of the child.

(b) Paid adoption leave may be paid on a normal fortnightly basis, in advance in a lump sum, at the rate of half pay over a period of twenty weeks on a regular fortnightly basis.

(c) Recreation and/or long service leave credits can be combined with periods of adoption leave at half pay to enable an Employee to remain on full pay for that period.

47.15.3 Unpaid Adoption Leave

Eligible Employees are entitled to unpaid adoption leave as follows:

(a) Where the child is under the age of 12 months - a period of not more than 12 months from the date of taking custody

(b) Where the child is over the age of 12 months - a period of up to 12 months, such period to be agreed upon by both the Employee and the Employer

47.15.4 Applications

Due to the fact that an Employee may be given little notice of the date of taking custody of a child, Employees who believe that, in the reasonably near future, they will take custody of a child, should formally notify the Employer as early as practicable of the intention to take adoption leave. This will allow arrangements associated with the adoption leave to be made.

47.15.5 Variation after commencement of Leave

After commencing adoption leave, an Employee may vary the period of leave, once without the consent of the Employer and otherwise with the consent of the Employer. A minimum of four week's notice must be given, although an Employer may accept less notice if convenient.

47.15.6 Other Provisions for Adoption Leave

The conditions relating to Staffing Provisions, Effect of Adoption Leave on Accrual of Leave, Increments, etc, Right to return to previous position and Return for Less than Full Time Hours shall be as per maternity leave conditions.
47.15.7 Liability for Superannuation Contributions
During a period of unpaid maternity leave or unpaid adoption leave, the Employer will not be required to meet the Employee's superannuation liability.

47.15.8 Permanent Part time and Casual Employees
Permanent part-time Employees as defined in clause 21 – Permanent Part time employment and clause 22 casual employees, of the Agreement (viz., Employees engaged on a permanent part-time basis for less than the full-time hours of work) who do not receive the part-time loading but instead receive proportionate full-time conditions of employment are covered by this clause. As such, these permanent part-time Employees (as specified) are entitled to pro-rata paid maternity leave after 40 weeks continuous service. Casual Employees do not have an entitlement to paid parental leave.

47.16 Paid Parental Leave
Eligible employees whose spouse or partner is pregnant or is taking custody of a child are entitled to a period of 2 weeks paid leave. The entitlement of two weeks paid parental leave may be taken at any time within the 52 week period of the birth and shall be paid at full pay for two weeks or half pay for four weeks.

48 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

48.1 Notice of termination by the Employer
In order to terminate the employment of an employee, the Employer shall give the employee the following notice:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<td>1 week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 1 year, but not more than 3 years</td>
<td>2 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 3 years but not more than 5 years</td>
<td>3 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In addition to the notice period set out above, employees over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of notice with not less than two years continuous service, shall be entitled to an additional week’s notice.

Payment in lieu of the notice period set out above shall be made if the appropriate notice period is not given. Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice, and part payment in lieu of notice.

In calculating any payment in lieu of notice, the wages to be used shall be those an employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time (including relevant allowances) they would have worked during the period of notice had their employment not been terminated.

The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for conduct which justifies instant dismissal or in the case of casual employees, or apprentices or those employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks.
48.2 Notice of Termination by employee
The notice of termination required to be given by an employee shall be 14 days notice except for employees with less than 12 months service where the notice shall be 7 days notice shall be no additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give notice the Employer shall have the right to withhold monies due to the employee with a maximum amount equal to the ordinary time rate of pay for the period of notice.

48.3 Time Off During Notice Period
Where the Employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee shall be allowed up to one day’s time off without loss of pay, during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off shall be taken at a time mutually convenient to the employee and the Employer.

49 ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS AND FIRE DRILLS

50 REDUNDANCY

50.1 For the purposes of this clause, “continuous service” shall be interpreted in the same manner as “service of a worker” is interpreted in the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW) as at the date this Agreement comes into operation. Periods of leave without pay, including parental leave without pay, do not break the continuity of service of an employee but are not to be taken into account in calculating length of service for the purposes of this clause.
50.2 Redundancy occurs where the employer has made a definite decision that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

50.3 Unless the FWC subsequently orders otherwise pursuant to sub-clause 50.4, where the employment of an employee is to be terminated for the reason set out in sub-clause 50.2, the employer shall pay, in addition to other payments due to that employee, the following retrenchment pay in respect of the following continuous periods of service:

<td>2 years and less than 3 years</td>
<td>7 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 years and less than 4 years</td>
<td>10 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 years and less than 5 years</td>
<td>12 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5 years and less than 6 years</td>
<td>14 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6 years and over</td>
<td>16 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(b) Where the employee is 45 years of age or over, the employer shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

<table>
<thead>

<td>8.75 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 years and less than 4 years</td>
<td>12.5 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 years and less than 5 years</td>
<td>15 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5 years and less than 6 years</td>
<td>17.5 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6 years and over</td>
<td>20 weeks pay</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(c) "Weeks pay" means the rate of pay for the employee concerned at the date of termination, and shall include in addition to the ordinary pay any over-agreement payments and the following, if applicable:

(i) shift and weekend penalties as prescribed in clause 25 – Penalty rates for Shift and Weekend Work;

50.4 Subject to an application by the employer and further order of the FWC the employer may pay a lesser amount (or no amount) of retrenchment pay than that contained in sub-clause 50.3. The FWC shall have regard to such financial and other resources of the employer concerned as the FWC thinks relevant, and the probable effect paying the amount of retrenchment pay in sub-clause 50.3 will have on the employer. Provided that where a Deputy Director of Clinical Services or Assistant Director of Clinical Services has their position made redundant and they are offered an alternative position at a lower rate of pay which they do not accept, they shall be paid the full entitlement contained in sub-clause 50.3 and the employer may not make application to the FWC under this sub-clause.
50.5 Time Off during the Notice Period

(a) During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice, to a maximum of five weeks, for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee shall not receive payment for the time absent.

51 NO EXTRA CLAIMS

This Agreement in conjunction with the Private Hospital Industry Nurses’ (State) Award is intended to deal comprehensively with all wages, allowances and conditions for Employees employed by the Employer. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Agreement is in full and final settlement of all matters, claims and demands however described made during the development of this Agreement. The parties have developed this Agreement in good faith based upon information shared by the parties during the negotiation process. The parties must not under any circumstances seek to vary this Agreement except by the consent of the parties.

No Employee shall be compelled to enter into a salary packaging arrangement. Employees may exercise their right to continue to receive their applicable salary.

52.2 Where the Employer offers remuneration packaging to an individual Employee, the Employer shall allow the Employee a period of no less than 21 days to seek independent advice on the terms of the proposed remuneration packaging.

52.3 The terms and conditions of the package offered to an Employee shall not, when viewed objectively, be less favourable than the entitlements otherwise available under the Agreement and shall be subject to the following provisions:

52.3.1 The Employer shall ensure that the structure of any package complies with taxation and other relevant laws;

52.3.2 All award and agreement conditions shall continue to apply;

52.3.5 The Employee shall be entitled to inspect details of the payments made under the terms of this agreement;
52.3.6 The configuration of the remuneration package shall remain in force for the period agreed between the Employee and the Employer;

52.3.7 Where at the end of the Fringe Benefit Tax year the full amount allocated to a specific benefit has not been utilized, it will be paid as salary, which will be subject to appropriate taxation requirements. By agreement between the Employer and the Employee, any unused benefit may be carried forward to the next period on the basis that any FBT obligation is accepted by the Employee;

52.3.8 In the event that the Employer ceases to attract exemption from payment of Fringe Benefit Tax, the Employer may terminate all remuneration packaging arrangements and the Employee’s salary will revert to the applicable rate the Employee would have been entitled to receive but for the remuneration packaging agreement;

52.3.9 One months’ notice by either party is required for change or termination of a remuneration packaging agreement, unless the change or termination is brought about by legislation or an increase to salaries;

52.3.10 In the event that the Employee ceases to be employed by the Employer this agreement will cease to apply as at the date of termination. Benefits not paid on or before the date of termination shall be treated as salary and the appropriate tax deducted;

52.3.11 Pay increases granted to Employees in accordance with this agreement shall also apply to Employees subject to remuneration packaging arrangements; and

52.3.12 Any allowance, penalty rate, overtime, payment for unused leave entitlements, other than payments for leave taken whilst employed shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the Employee in the absence of any remuneration packaging arrangements.

(ii) overtime rates;

(iii) penalty rates;

(iv) allowances;

(v) leave loading; and
(b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the employer and employee in relation to 1 or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a); and

(a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and

(b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and

(c) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.

53.3 The employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) is in writing; and

(b) includes the name of the employer and employee; and

(c) is signed by the employer and employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and

(d) includes details of:

(i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and

(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and

(iii) how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and

(e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

53.4 The employer must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

54.5 The superannuation contributions will be paid at ordinary pay, which for the purpose of this Agreement includes ordinary time worked on public holidays and public holiday loadings.

54.6 Contributions:

(a) An employee can elect to sacrifice a portion of salary to superannuation. Such election must be made prior to the commencement of the period of service to which the earnings relate and be in accordance with relevant legislation.

(b) Salary sacrifice to superannuation means the option of making additional superannuation contributions by electing to sacrifice a portion of the gross earnings (pre-tax dollars). This will give the effect of reducing the taxable income by the amount for salary sacrifice.

(c) Employers will not use any amount that is salary sacrificed by an employee to count towards the employer’s obligation to pay contributions under the SG legislation.

(d) Contributions payable by the employer in relation to the SG legislation shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the employee under this Agreement in the absence of any salary sacrifice.
