Dear Brett

Re: NSWMA Action – Wednesday 24 July 2013

Congratulations to the Councillors and state wide delegates of the NSW Nurses and Midwives' Association (NSWNMA) for your strong resolve in calling for member industrial action to support the Ratios put patient safety first campaign.

On the proposed day of action, the NSW Teachers Federation (NSWTF) Senior Officers will be in Melbourne attending the Australian Education Union Federal Executive.

However, I am pleased to advise that Rod Brown will be attending the NSWNMA Special General Meeting on behalf of NSWTF. Rod is currently the relieving Assistant General Secretary (Research and Industrial).

NSWTF shares your concerns at the funding cuts imposed across the public sector, which negatively impact on the quality and level of access to public services.

Further, the NSWTF congratulates the NSWNMA members for their strong and united action.

Yours in solidarity

Jenny Diamond
General Secretary
