

Legal and Professional Issues

for nurses and midwives

Friday 17 November, 9.00am to 1.00pm

Learn about potential liability, disciplinary tribunals, NMC and HCCC complaints, Coroners Court and more.

This ½ day seminar includes:

- ✚ Areas of potential liability
- ✚ Disciplinary tribunals
- ✚ Complaints
 - ✚ Nursing & Midwifery Council
 - ✚ Health Care Complaints Commission (HCCC)
- ✚ Coroners Court
- ✚ Making a statement
- ✚ The importance of documentation
- ✚ Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) No. 86A
- ✚ Q&A.

Cost: Members $40 / Non-members $85 – Refreshments provided

Appropriate Workplace Behaviour

for nurses and midwives

Friday 1 December, 9.00am to 4.30pm

This 1-day seminar aims to ensure nurses and midwives:

- ✚ Understand anti-discrimination law and how it relates to NSW Health policies and practices
- ✚ Understand how to behave appropriately in the workplace
- ✚ Are able to identify behaviour which constitutes unlawful harassment and bullying
- ✚ Are able to identify the cost of bullying
- ✚ Understand what they can do if subjected to unlawful harassment and bullying and how to use workplace grievance procedures
- ✚ Helps managers and supervisors identify, prevent and resolve bullying and harassment and understand why bullying occurs.

Cost: Members $85 / Non-members $170 – Lunch and Refreshments provided

Venue: “Tradies”, Sutherland District Trade Union Club

Southern Cross Terrace

57 Manchester Road, Gymea

REGISTER ONLINE: bit.ly/NSWNMAeducation

 (02) 8595 1234 (metro) or 1300 367 962 (regional)

Authorised by B. Holmes, General Secretary, NSWNMA

