

NEW SOUTH WALES NURSES AND MIDWIVES' ASSOCIATION
AUSTRALIAN NURSING AND MIDWIFERY FEDERATION NEW SOUTH WALES BRANCH

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position: Industrial Officer, Strategic Industrial and Bargaining Team (SIBT)

Team: SIBT

Reports to: Manager, SIBT

Key relationships: SIBT, Member Organising team, Professional Services team, members and branches/delegates.

Hours of work: Full Time/part time in accordance with the New South Wales Nurses and Midwives' Association (NSWNMA) Employment Enterprise Agreement

Salary range: Industrial Officer, Level 1 - 5

Vision Statement

The New South Wales Nurses and Midwives' Association (NSWNMA) and the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation New South Wales Branch (ANMF NSW Branch) is a strong, influential union of members respected as a contemporary leader in society for its innovation and achievements.

Our Values

The NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch conducts itself with integrity and courage, demonstrating creative and innovative approaches. The NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch will be an authoritative advocate on behalf of the nursing and midwifery professions, as well as for the community in advancing a world-class, well-funded, integrated health system, based on a clear and considered vision for the future.

The NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch will demonstrate ethical and respectful behaviour in its interactions with other organisations and society, whilst ensuring its own workplace is cohesive, fair and dynamic, embracing shared union beliefs.

Position Overview:

To progress industrial relations matters as allocated by the Manager, Industrial Strategy and Bargaining, and including the provision of expert support, advice and representation to members and NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch union officers in the following broad areas:

- conduct campaigns for collective agreements working closely with organisers
- Industrial research, advice and negotiation to contribute to the achievement of the Association's strategic goals.

Key Responsibilities:

Application of Industrial Instruments

- Monitoring the application of relevant instruments;
- Assisting other Association staff with accurate application of instruments,
- Undertaking research into instrument-related matters and preparing advice/recommendations to Association management or Branches where appropriate
- Undertaking negotiations and Commission/tribunal advocacy to achieve approval and variation of awards/agreements where appropriate and achievable
- Providing professional direction and leadership to other NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch staff and/or Branch Officials on industrial matters.

Undertake responsibility for the preparation and presentation of submissions in industrial tribunals including evidence/affidavits, as allocated, and where necessary in conjunction with Counsel, including:

- Approval/certification of new instruments
- Consent variations & test case award variations
- Major industrial case matters

Implementation of industrial negotiations and collective bargaining campaigns

- Participate as an integral part of campaigning-focused teams
- Develop and execute member research process for claim development
- Develop and guide Organisers in carrying out process for member consultation, claim endorsement, feedback during bargaining period, member approval of proposed agreement/settlement
- Develop bargaining claims for allocated negotiations
- Where required, develop model claims
- Researching and planning strategies aimed at achieving collective agreements
- Leading or participating in negotiations with employers (as allocated)
- Provide industrial advice to organising, campaign and communications officers to contribute to development of their campaign-related activities including participating in and advising internal campaign committees/groups and providing written material for Organisers where needed
- Provide written reports to members during bargaining process.

General Industrial Research, Advice and Representation

- Provide thoroughly-researched quality reportage and professional advice to the formal bodies of NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch as required, for example Committee of Delegates, Annual Conference and Council meetings.
- Provide high quality reportage to contribute to the communication of industrial matters to members e.g. General Secretary circulars, material for The Lamp.
- Provide research, report writing and/or claim development on industrial issues, either award/agreement-specific or of general application
- Apply an excellent standard of written and oral communication in all dealings with industrial parties

- Represent the Association in external forums where required e.g. Unions NSW meetings/committees, Conferences.
- Represent NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch in various NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch member forums where required e.g. member educational seminars
- Assist the Manager, Industrial Strategy and Bargaining by contributing to the development of the NSWNMA / ANMF NSW Branch's broad industrial policy and strategic industrial priorities as required.
- Assume responsibility for development and implementation of union policy or negotiations in specialised industrial areas where allocated e.g. superannuation, injured nurses, collective bargaining in a particular industry sector
- Participate in industrial team activities.
- Refer matters requiring attention to the team manager.

Selection Criteria:

Essential:

- Demonstrated commitment to the trade union movement
- Commitment to strive for the advancement of nurses and midwives, and the nursing and midwifery professions
- Thorough working knowledge of contemporary industrial relations legislation and practices
- Specific knowledge and preferably experience in the negotiation of collective agreements and campaigning techniques
- Understanding of industrial tribunal protocols
- Developed negotiation, advocacy and representation skills
- Experience in program/project development, implementation and evaluation ability including skills such as co-ordination, highly-developed consultation skills
- High level of initiative and ability to self-manage
- Ability to manage a range of complex issues/matters simultaneously, prioritise work
- Ability to exercise accurate and high level judgment about industrial issues, including those with union-wide sensitivity or implications, commensurate with level of experience in the role
- Ability to operate and deliver outcomes in a political environment
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- High level of industrial research and analytical skills
- Flexibility to adapt to high pressure situations and meet tight deadlines under pressure
- Ability to provide professional leadership and direction to Organisers on industrial issues
- Ability to participate effectively as a member of a team
- Word processing and typing capacity to a level of reasonable self-sufficiency and working knowledge of Word, email and Excel (where required) programs, internet searching
- Ability to relate effectively with members/delegates/potential members, and employers/employer representatives
- Current driver's licence (class 1A)

Relevant tertiary education:

- A degree including industrial relations, or alternatively arts, law or other broad social sciences discipline is relevant. An alternative is an extensive number of years experience working directly in the specialist IR field, most likely augmented by diploma or continuing education-level studies in IR.

Desirable:

- Experience in related fields such as work as an Organiser, industrial research officer or employment/IR lawyer is an additional benefit but not a requirement
- Prior working experience in the trade union movement is an additional benefit but not a requirement

I have read and understand the requirements of this position. I agree to undertake the responsibilities as set out in the position description.

Employee's signature:

---

Date:

---