

ODE TO SUZIE

There was a young girl
And her name was Sue
Her Mama went and ask her
“when you grow up girl, what you wanna do?”
Well Sue’s eye’s light up bright
Her teeth smiling white
She says... “why mama ... I wanna be a nurse”

Well her mama’s heart skipped a beat
She jumped straight to her feet
She says “now you listen here young Suzie Tarka,
...don’t you shock your mama like that
....you little mother f#ker!
You know girl what a nurse gotta do??”

“Why yeh ma
....I get to clean up pooh.

Pooh dat is brown
Pooh dat is black
Pooh so runny
it slides right down the crack
Pooh so hard it don’t wanna come out
...it need a ‘Fleet’ enema from a big plastic spout!”

“Well girl, you really got the curse if you wanna grow up to be a godamn nurse”

So Sue grew up, and she did just that She was a good fu#ing nurse
That took no crap.
She did clean some pooh
And...she saved many lives
She was the 'miss queen bee' of the ED hive.

Now she's gunna leave us
Hell knows what we're gunna do
We really gunna miss ya
Our favourite nurse Sue
