

“ JOHN ”

He Died today our Friend

Did You Know Him?

He is the one that cancer came,

And took his life away,

A Disease so wretched and merciless,

A Cancer that had only one end,

His time with us so precious,

A privilege and an honour, He humbled both of us,

This Man was such an inspiration,

For life ,survival ,times and dreams,

Our tears they fall so freely,

Our awe it overwhelms,

He Died today our Friend ,

Did you know him?

His mind so sharp and strong ,

Right to the very end.

It seems he never faltered,
It seems he never wavered ,
I am terminal he would say,
They have told me so you know,
I am living every day,
I will fight this to the end,
Come sit with He'd say,
Spend time with me today,
I'd love to have your company,
It keeps my fears at bay.

He died today our Friend
Did you know him?
