- (b) the work performed by the nurse will be able to be satisfactorily completed within the ordinary hours of work assigned to the employee in their roster cycle;
- (c) the work will be consistent with the duties within the nurse's classification description and at a professional standard so that the care provided or about to be provided to a client shall be adequate, appropriate and not adversely affect the rights, health or safety of the client or nurse;
- (d) the workload expected of an nurse will not be unfair or unreasonable having regard to the skills, experience and classification of the employee for the period in which the workload is allocated;
- (e) a nurse will not be allocated an unreasonable or excessive nursing workload or other responsibilities;
- (f) a nurse shall not be required to work an unreasonable amount of overtime; and
- (g) a nurse's workload will not prevent reasonable and practicable access to Learning and Development Leave, together with 'in-house' courses or activities, and mandatory training and education.

(ii) Skill Mix

- (a) The staffing mix at an individual unit level will be determined by an assessment of client's needs and the availability of support staff. This will involve a consolidated review of all existing client assessments and plans, including:
 1. the clients individual support plan;
 2. health assessments, health care plans or healthy lifestyle plans;
 3. nutrition and or swallowing assessments and any associated plans; and

- (b) The review will identify the specific client needs on the unit that require the specialised input or supervision of a registered or enrolled nurse. It will also identify what client care and support tasks can be undertaken by an Assistant in Nursing. This will be the basis on which the staff mix for an individual unit will be determined and it will be translated into the unit roster.
- (c) The process will be documented by:
 1. listing the client assessments and plans considered in developing the staffing profile for the unit;
 2. identifying in writing the specialist input or supervision requirements for clients in the unit;
 3. identifying in writing the client care and support tasks that will be undertaken by an Assistant in Nursing; and

Aspects of reasonable workload may include, but need not be limited to, nursing workloads generally, skill mix, training, and planning for devolution to community based services as they relate to nursing workloads. It is intended that the committees, by their operation, will make a positive contribution to the workload of nurses.
 - (b) It is intended that the reasonable workload committees provide a structured and transparent forum for all nurses to be genuinely consulted about workload matters through an appropriate mechanism; contribute to the decision making process; and have the ability to resolve disputes about workloads, should they arise, through the committee process and provisions in this Award.
- (iv) Structure of reasonable workload committees
- (a) Upon request by the Association, nurse(s) employed in a Large Residential Service or the employer, a reasonable workload committee shall be established for the relevant service. Such requests shall be made to the Chief Executive Officer of the facility or the Regional Manager Accommodation and Respite as appropriate.
 - (b) Each reasonable workload committee shall comprise equal representation of employees and the employer. Employee representation shall be determined by the Association. Employer representation shall be determined by the facility. Committee size will be determined by agreement between the Association and the employer. Every endeavour shall be made to minimise the size of the workload committee, with provision to co-opt additional assistance that may be required on an 'as needs' basis.
 - (c) The committees shall meet with a frequency determined by each committee, having regard to issues and information to hand.
 - (d) The committee members and the parties they represent shall make every endeavour to reduce or eliminate any duplication of subject matter and coverage with pre-existing structures and consultative mechanisms. Every effort shall also be taken to ensure the most efficient meeting arrangements are instituted for operation of the committees and to minimise disruption to nurses' rosters. The committee members and the parties they represent shall make every endeavour to ensure that any additional time and information imposts arising from the operations of the committee are minimised.
 - (e) To enable members of reasonable workload committees to discharge the committee's role and carry out their responsibilities, attendance at committee meetings and reasonable preparation time shall be deemed to be time on duty and remunerated accordingly. Wherever possible, this time shall occur during the ordinary hours of work.
- (v) Grievances in relation to workload
- (a) Notwithstanding the provisions specified in sub-clauses (ii) to (iii) of clause 18, Disputes in this Award, the following procedure will apply to resolve workload grievances or staffing grievances directly arising from nursing workload issues.
 - (b) A grievance in relation to such matter shall first be raised at the unit level with the Nursing Unit Manager responsible (or the appropriate manager).

- (c) If the matter remains unresolved, it should be referred to the appropriate Nurse Manager or Principal Nurse Manager depending on the nursing executive structure of the facility in which the grievance has arisen.
- (d) If the matter remains unresolved, it should be referred to the appropriate facility reasonable workload committee for consideration and recommendation to management.

If the work required is completed in less than four hours, the employee shall be released from duty.
- (iv) In lieu of the conditions specified in subclauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this clause, a nurse who works directed overtime may be compensated by way of time off in lieu of overtime, subject to the following requirements:
 - (a) Time off in lieu must be taken within three months of it being accrued at ordinary rates.

 - (d) Time off in lieu of overtime should only be considered as an option in those circumstances where the Department is able to provide adequate replacement staff to ensure that the level of quality of service that would otherwise have been provided had overtime been worked, is in fact provided.
 - (e) Records of all time off in lieu owing to nurses and taken by nurses must be maintained.

- (vi) An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving the Department's premises, and who is required to work for more than four hours, shall be allowed 20 minutes for the partaking of a meal and further 20 minutes after each subsequent four hours overtime; all such time shall be counted as time worked.
- (vii)

- (xi) An employee may refuse to work overtime where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable.
- (xii) For the purposes of sub-clause (xii) above, what is unreasonable or otherwise will be determined having regard to:
 - (a) any risk to employee health and safety;
 - (b) the employee's personal circumstances including any family and carer responsibilities, community obligations or study arrangements;
 - (c) the urgency of the work required to be performed, the impact on operational commitments and the effect on client services;
 - (d) the notice (if any) given by the employer of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
 - (e) any other relevant matter.

Provided further that any proposal to alter the day on which wages are to be paid or the number of days pay kept in hand by the employer, must be the subject of consultation with the Head Office of the Association.
- (ii) Employees shall have their salary paid into one account with a bank or other financial institution in New South Wales as nominated by the employee. Salaries shall be deposited by the Department in sufficient time to ensure that wages are available for withdrawal by employees by no later than payday, provided that this requirement shall not apply where employees nominate accounts with non-bank financial institutions which lack the technological or other facilities to process salary deposits within 24 hours of the Department making their deposits with such financial institutions, but in such cases, the Department shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the wages of such employees are available for withdrawal by no later than payday.
- (iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (ii) of this clause, an employee who has given or has been given the required notice of termination of employment, shall be paid all monies due to him/her prior to ceasing duty on the last day of employment.

Where an employee is summarily dismissed or his/her services are terminated without due notice, any monies due to him/her shall be paid as soon as possible after such dismissal or termination but in any case not more than three days thereafter.

- (iv) Underpayment and overpayment of salaries: The following process will apply once the issue of underpayment or overpayment is substantiated.

(a) Underpayment:

1. If the amount paid is equal to or greater than one day's gross base pay the underpayment will be rectified within three working days;
2. If the amount is less than one day's gross base pay it will be rectified by no later than the next normal pay. However if the employee can demonstrate that rectification in this manner would result in undue hardship every effort will be made by the employer to rectify the underpayment within three working days.

(a) Overpayment:

1. In all cases where overpayments have occurred, the employer shall as soon as possible advise the employee concerned of both the circumstances surrounding the overpayment and the amount involved. The employer will also advise the employee of the pay period from which the recovery of the overpayment is to commence.
2. One off overpayments will be recovered in the next normal pay, except that where the employee can demonstrate that undue hardship would result, the recovery rate shall be at 10% of an employee's gross fortnightly base pay.
3. Unless the employee agrees otherwise, the maximum rate at which cumulative overpayments can be recovered is an amount, calculated on a per fortnight basis, equivalent to 10% of the employee's gross fortnightly base pay.
4. The recovery rate of 10% of an employee's gross fortnightly base pay referred to in subclause (b) (iii) above may be reduced by agreement, where the employee can demonstrate that undue hardship would result.
5. Where an employee's remaining period of service does not permit the full recovery of any overpayment to be achieved on the fortnightly basis prescribed in subclause (b) (iii) above, the Department shall have the right to deduct any balance of such overpayment from monies owing to the employee on the employee's date of termination, resignation or retirement, as the case may be.

- (ii) Subject to subclause (iii) of this clause, employees engaged under Part 1 shall be paid an hourly rate calculated on the basis of one thirty-eighth of the appropriate rate prescribed by clause 8, Salaries, with a minimum payment of two hours for each start, and one thirty-eighth of the appropriate allowances

Such payment is in lieu of any additional rate for shift work or weekend work which would otherwise be payable had the day not been a public holiday. In lieu of adding to recreation leave under this paragraph an employee may elect to be paid for the time actually worked at the rate of time and one half in addition to his/her ordinary weekly rate. Where payment is made in lieu of leave in respect of time worked on a public holiday, payment shall be made for a minimum of four hours work, and any balance of the day or shift not worked shall be paid at ordinary rates. For employees who work less than five days per week, when a public holiday occurs on a day of the week on which an employee regularly works, that employee shall be entitled to observe the public holiday without loss of pay, i.e. the employee's roster must not be changed to avoid payment of the public holiday.
- (v) In this Part, ordinary pay, for the purposes of sick leave and recreation leave, shall be calculated on the basis of the average weekly ordinary hours worked over the 12 months' qualifying period.

In normal circumstances, a casual employee must not take carer's leave under this subclause where another person had taken leave to care for the same person.

- (e) The casual employee must, as soon as reasonably practicable and during the ordinary hours of the first day or shift of such absence, inform the employer of their inability to attend for duty. If it is not reasonably practicable to inform the employer during the ordinary hours of the first day or shift of such absence, the employee will inform the employer within 24 hours of the absence.

- (d) a same sex partner who lives with the staff member as the de facto partner of that staff member on a bona fide domestic basis; or a relative of the staff member who is a member of the same household, where for the purposes of this definition:

"relative" means a person related by blood, marriage, affinity or Aboriginal kinship structures;

"affinity" means a relationship that one spouse or partner has to the relatives of the other; and

"household" means a family group living in the same domestic dwelling.

- (a) Casual employees are entitled to not be available to attend work, or to leave work upon the death in Australia of a family member on production of satisfactory evidence (if required by the employer).
- (b) The Department Head and the casual employee shall agree on the period for which the employee will be entitled to not be available to attend work. In the absence of agreement, the employee is entitled to not be available to attend work for up to 48 hours (i.e. two days) per occasion. The casual employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.

- (a) A full time shift worker who is required to and does work on a public holiday shall be paid, in addition to the appropriate ordinary rate of pay, at the rate of one half time extra for the time actually worked on such holiday. Such payment shall be in lieu of any additional rate for shift work or weekend work which would otherwise be payable had the day not been a public holiday.
- (b) A day worker who is required to and does work on a public holiday shall be paid in addition to the appropriate ordinary rate of pay, an additional rate of time and a half resulting in a total payment of double time and a half for time so time so worked. Such payment shall be in lieu of any additional rate for shift work or weekend work which would otherwise be payable had the day not been a public holiday. Provided that in lieu of the additional payment above the employee may elect to have an additional day added to their recreation leave and be paid at the rate of one half time extra for the time actually worked.
- (c) To leave prescribed by subclause (i) of this clause, there shall be added one working day or one half working day for each special public holiday or half public holiday (not being one of the ten specifically named public holidays prescribed by subclause (iii) of this clause, or a special day proclaimed in lieu of any of them), which may occur during the qualifying period for recreation leave or during the period of recreation leave.

Where the grading of such a position is altered to a lesser grade, and the affected position is substantively occupied, the incumbent of the position will retain the higher grading on a personal basis.

18. Disputes

- (i) All parties must use their best endeavours to cooperate in order to avoid any grievances and/or disputes.
- (ii) Where a dispute arises in any work location, regardless of whether it relates to an individual nurse or to a group of nurses, the matter must be discussed in the first instance by the nurse(s) (or the Association on behalf of the nurse(s) if the nurse(s) so request(s)) and the immediate supervisor of that nurse(s).
