This course will provide branch officials and activists with an overview of a range of common workplace issues for which they might be required to support members or provide representation. Members will attend the professional education session Law, Ethics and Professional Standards in nursing and midwifery.

WINNING AT WORK (Two-day course)

WHEN AND WHERE?

- 19-20 April
- 18-19 October

8:30am registration for 9am start, 5pm close
NSWNMA Waterloo Office or CBD venue

This course is aimed at members who are ready to take it up a notch. Perhaps there's a long standing issue at work that needs a bigger campaign, perhaps your branch is involved in the state-wide issues or perhaps you want to develop skills to campaign in your community. This two day course explores how we achieve change and how we encourage decision makers to make the right choice for our communities.
