Fair Work Act 2009
s.185—Enterprise agreement

IBIS (No 2) Pty Ltd T/A Ibis Care Miranda
(AG2019/1629)

IBIS CARE MIRANDA, AUSTRALIAN NURSING AND MIDWIFERY
FEDERATION NSW BRANCH, HEALTH SERVICES UNION NSW
BRANCH & NSW NURSES & MIDWIVES' ASSOCIATION
ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2019

Aged care industry

DEPUTY PRESIDENT MASSON

MELBOURNE, 21 JUNE 2019

Application for approval of the IBIS Care Miranda, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation NSW Branch, Health Services Union NSW Branch & NSW Nurses & Midwives' Association Enterprise Agreement 2019.

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the IBIS Care Miranda, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation NSW Branch, Health Services Union NSW Branch & NSW Nurses & Midwives' Association Enterprise Agreement 2019 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by IBIS (No 2) Pty Ltd T/A Ibis Care Miranda. The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached in Annexure A. I am satisfied that the undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement.

[3] Subject to the undertakings referred to above, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[4] I note that employees were provided with the voting information on the 18 April 2019, and the vote was conducted 5 days later on the 23 April 2019, rather than 7 clear days as prescribed by the Act. However, I am satisfied that in all of the circumstances and having regard to the Huntsman Chemical Company Australia Pty Limited T/A RMAX Rigid Cellular Plastics & Others, 1 this constitutes a minor procedural or technical error for the purposes of s 188(2)(a). Further, I am satisfied that the employees covered by the Agreement were not likely to have been disadvantaged by the error. As a result, I am satisfied that the Agreement has been genuinely agreed within the meaning of s 188(2) of the Act.

[5] The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) and the Health Services Union (HSU) being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have given notice under s.183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s.201(2) I note that the Agreement covers the organisations.

[6] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 28 June 2019. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 26 March 2022.

1 Title

- 1.1 This Agreement is the IBIS Care Miranda, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation NSW Branch, Health Services Union NSW Branch & NSW Nurses & Midwives' Association Enterprise Agreement 2019.

2 Parties Bound

- 2.1 This Agreement shall be binding on:
- (a) IBIS Care Miranda; and
 - (b) All employees engaged by IBIS Care Miranda in the roles listed in Schedule A, Schedule B and Schedule C.

3 Term of this Agreement

3.1 When it starts

This Agreement operates 7 days after the date it is approved by the Fair Work Commission (The Implementation Date).

3.2 When it ends

This Agreement will nominally expire on 26 March 2022. The Agreement will continue to operate after the expiry date unless formally terminated pursuant to the Act or varied by consent of IBIS Care Miranda and employees whose employment is subject to this Agreement (and such variation is approved by the Fair Work Commission).

4 Definitions and Interpretation

- 4.1 In this agreement, unless the contrary intention appears:

Associations mean the NSWNMA, ANMF NSW Branch and the HSU NSW Branch.

Act means the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth), as varied or replaced from time to time

Aged care industry means the provision of accommodation and care services for aged persons in a hostel, nursing home, aged care independent living units, aged care serviced apartments, garden settlement, retirement village or any other residential accommodation facility including in the home

FWC means Fair Work Commission

Employee has the meaning in the Act and refers to those employees employed by the employer to occupy those classifications expressly described and contained within this agreement

Employer has the meaning in the Act and in this Agreement refers to IBIS (no 2) Pty Ltd t/as IBIS Care Miranda ABN 29 101 604 648, located at 2C Karimbla Road, Miranda NSW 2228. IBIS Care Miranda is part of the IBIS Care Group.

NES means National Employment Standards set out under Chapter 2, Part 2-2 of the Act

- 4.2 Where this agreement refers to an entitlement provided for in the NES, the NES definition applies.

5 Coverage

- 5.1 This Agreement shall cover the following:
- (a) IBIS (no 2) Pty Ltd t/as IBIS Care Miranda, ABN 29 101 604 648 located at 2C Karimbla Road, Miranda NSW 2228 ("the employer")
 - (b) The New South Wales Nurses & Midwives' Association (NSWNMA) and Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) (hereafter jointly referred to as "the Association"), of 50 O'Dea Ave, Waterloo NSW, 2017
 - (c) The Health Services Union (HSU) Level 2, 109 Pitt Street, Sydney, NSW 2000.
- 5.2 This Agreement shall apply to all employees of the employer, employed at Miranda Aged Care and Retirement Centre and performing work within the classifications described and contained in this agreement.

6 Access to the Agreement and the National Employment Standards

- 6.1 The employer must ensure that copies of this agreement and the NES are available to all employees to whom they apply either on a noticeboard which is conveniently located at or near the workplace or through electronic means.

7 The National Employment Standards and this Agreement

- 7.1 The NES and this Agreement contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this Agreement.

8 Agreement Flexibility

- 8.1 An employer and employee covered by this enterprise agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the agreement if:
- (a) the agreement deals with 1 or more of the following matters:
 - (i) arrangements about when work is performed;
 - (ii) overtime rates;
 - (iii) penalty rates;
 - (iv) allowances;
 - (v) leave loading; and
 - (b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the employer and employee in relation to 1 or more of the matters mentioned in clause 8.1(a) (i) to (v); and
 - (c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the employer and employee.
- 8.2 The employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:
- (a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and

- (b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and
 - (c) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.
- 8.3 The employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:
 - (a) is in writing; and
 - (b) includes the name of the employer and employee; and
 - (c) is signed by the employer and employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and
 - (d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
 - (iii) how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
 - (e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.
- 8.4 The employer must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.
- 8.5 The employer or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
 - (a) by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
 - (b) if the employer and employee agree in writing — at any time.

9 Consultation

- 9.1 This term applies if the employer:
 - (a) has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on the employees; or
 - (b) proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of employees.

Major change

- 9.2 For a major change referred to in paragraph (9.1)(a):
 - (a) the employer must notify the relevant employees of the decision to introduce the major change; and
 - (b) clauses (9.3) to (9.9) apply.
- 9.3 The relevant employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.
- 9.4 If:

- (a) a relevant employee appoints, or relevant employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation; and
- (b) the employee or employees advise the employer of the identity of the representative;

the employer must recognise the representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the employer must:

- (a) discuss with the relevant employees:
 - (i) the introduction of the change; and
 - (ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the employees; and
 - (iii) measures the employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the employees; and
- (b) for the purposes of the discussion—provide, in writing, to the relevant employees:
 - (i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and
 - (ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the employees; and
 - (iii) any other matters likely to affect the employees.

9.6 However, the employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.

9.7 The employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant employees.

9.8 If a term in this agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the employer, the requirements set out in paragraph (9.2)(a) and subclauses (9.3) and (9.5) are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this term, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on employees if it results in:

- (a) the termination of the employment of employees; or
- (b) major change to the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or to the skills required of employees; or
- (c) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or
- (d) the alteration of hours of work; or
- (e) the need to retrain employees; or
- (f) the need to relocate employees to another workplace; or
- (g) the restructuring of jobs.

Change to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

9.10 For a change referred to in paragraph (9.1)(b):

- (a) the employer must notify the relevant employees of the proposed change; and
- (b) clauses (9.11) to (9.15) apply.

- 9.11 The relevant employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.
- 9.12 If:
- (a) a relevant employee appoints, or relevant employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation; and
 - (b) the employee or employees advise the employer of the identity of the representative;
- the employer must recognise the representative.
- 9.13 As soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change, the employer must:
- (a) discuss with the relevant employees the introduction of the change; and
 - (b) for the purposes of the discussion—provide to the relevant employees:
 - (i) all relevant information about the change, including the nature of the change; and
 - (ii) information about what the employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the employees; and
 - (iii) information about any other matters that the employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the employees; and
 - (c) invite the relevant employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).
- 9.14 However, the employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.
- 9.15 The employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant employees.
- 9.16 In this term:
- (a) relevant employees means the employees who may be affected by a change referred to in subclause (9.1).

10 Dispute Resolution

- 10.1 If a dispute relates to:
- (a) a matter arising under the agreement; or
 - (b) the National Employment Standards;
- this term sets out procedures to settle the dispute.
- 10.2 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.
- 10.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the employee or employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.
- 10.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

- 10.5 The FWC may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:
- (a) The FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and
 - (b) if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the FWC may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.
- 10.6 Note If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.
- 10.7 A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Div 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.
- 10.8 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this term:
- (a) an employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
 - (b) an employee must comply with a direction given by the employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe; or
 - (ii) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - (iii) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
 - (iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- 10.9 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this term.

11 Right to Request Flexible Working Arrangements

- 11.1 An Employee may request change in working arrangements if:
- (a) any of the circumstances referred to in 11.3 apply to an employee; and
 - (b) the employee would like to change his or her working arrangements because of those circumstances;
 - (c) then the employee may request the employer for a change in working arrangements relating to those circumstances.
- 11.2 Examples of changes in working arrangements include changes in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work.
- 11.3 The following are the circumstances:
- (a) the employee is the parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child who is of school age or younger;

- (b) the employee is a carer (within the meaning of the Carer Recognition Act 2010);
- (c) the employee has a disability;
- (d) the employee is 55 or older;
- (e) the employee is experiencing violence from a member of the employee's family;
- (f) the employee provides care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family, or a member of the employee's household, who requires care or support because the member is experiencing violence from the member's family.

11.4 To avoid doubt, and without limiting 11.3(a), an employee who:

- (a) is a parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child; and
- (b) is returning to work after taking leave in relation to the birth or adoption of the child; may request to work part-time to assist the employee to care for the child.

11.5 The employee is not entitled to make the request unless:

- (a) for an employee other than a casual employee--the employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the employer immediately before making the request; or
- (b) for a casual employee--the employee:
 - (i) is a long term casual employee of the employer immediately before making the request; and
 - (ii) has a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.

11.6 Formal requirements

- (a) The request must:
 - (i) be in writing; and
 - (ii) set out details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

11.7 Agreeing to the request

- (a) The employer must give the employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request.
- (b) Before responding to a request made under this clause, the employer must discuss the request with the employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the employee's circumstances having regard to:
 - (i) The needs of the employee arising from their circumstances;
 - (ii) The consequences for the employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
 - (iii) Any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.

- (c) The employer may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds.
- (d) Without limiting what are reasonable business grounds for the purposes of clause 11.7 (b), reasonable business grounds include the following:
 - (i) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be too costly for the employer;
 - (ii) that there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;
 - (iii) that it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other employees, or recruit new employees, to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;
 - (iv) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be likely to result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;
 - (v) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be likely to have a significant negative impact on customer service.
 - (vi) If the employer refuses the request, the written response under clause 11.7 must include details of the reasons for the refusal.
- (e) If the employer and the employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements, the written response from the employer must:
 - (i) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee's circumstances; and
 - (ii) if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.
- (f) If the employer and the employee reached an agreement on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the employee, the employer must provide the employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed changes in working arrangements.

12 Work Load Management

- 12.1 The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that employees and management have a responsibility to maintain a balanced workload and recognise the adverse effects that excessive workloads may have on employee/s and the quality of resident/client care.
- 12.2 To ensure that employee concerns involving excessive workloads are effectively dealt with by Management the following procedures should be applied:

- (a) In the first instance, employee/s should discuss the issue with their immediate supervisor and, where appropriate, explore solutions.
 - (b) If a solution is required and cannot be identified and implemented, the matter should be referred to an appropriate senior manager for further discussion.
 - (c) If a solution is still required and cannot be identified and implemented, the matter should be referred to the Facility Manager for further discussion.
 - (d) The outcome of the discussions at each level and if appropriate any proposed solutions should be recorded in writing and fed back to the affected employees.
- 12.3 If the issue is still unresolved, the employee/s may advance the matter through Clause 10 Dispute Resolution Procedure. Arbitration of workload management issues may only occur by agreement of the employer and the employee representative, which may include the union/s.
- 12.4 On a monthly basis the Employer will hold a meeting where, among other matters, issues of workload can be raised and discussed.
- 12.5 Workload management must be an agenda item at staff meetings on at least a quarterly basis. Items in relation to workloads must be recorded in the minutes of the staff meeting, as well as actions to be taken to resolve the workloads issue/s. Resolution of workload issues should be based on the following criteria including but not limited to:
- (a) Clinical assessment of residents' needs;
 - (b) The demand of the environment such as Residence layout;
 - (c) Statutory obligation, (including, but not limited to, work health and safety legislation);
 - (d) The requirements of nurse regulatory legislation;
 - (e) Reasonable workloads (such as roster arrangements);
 - (f) Accreditation standards; and
 - (g) Budgetary considerations.

13 Types of Employment

- 13.1 Employment categories
- (a) Employees under this agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:
 - (i) Full-time;
 - (ii) Part time; or
 - (iii) Casual
- 13.2 At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time or casual basis. An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

13.3 Full-time employment

- (a) A full-time employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 23.1(a) of this Agreement.

13.4 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) For a nursing employee:
 - (i) before commencing part-time employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing the guarantee minimum number of hours to be worked and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours.
- (c) For an Aged Care Employee:
 - (i) before commencing employment, the Employer and Employee will agree in writing on:
 - (A) the span of hours that the Employee may be rostered within a fortnight. This span of hours shall include which shifts the Employee may be rostered to work; and
 - (B) the days of the week the Employee may be rostered to work within a fortnight; and
 - (C) the agreed minimum number of contracted hours to be worked per fortnight.
 - (ii) Notwithstanding clause 24 of this Agreement, a part time Employee may agree to work in excess of their rostered ordinary hours at the ordinary time rate of pay, provided that all time worked by a part-time employee which exceeds 8 hours or if rostered 10 hours per day, will be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter, except on Saturday and Sunday when overtime will be paid for at the rate of double time, and on public holidays when overtime will be paid at the rate of double time and a half.
 - (iii) No part-time Employee shall be directed to work in excess of their rostered ordinary hours at the ordinary time rate of pay.
- (d) A part-time employee will be paid a minimum of four hours pay for each engagement.
- (e) The terms of the agreement in (b)(i) and (c)(i) may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.
- (f) Unless otherwise stated, the terms of this agreement will apply on a pro rata basis to part-time employees on the basis that the ordinary weekly hours for full-time employees are 38.

13.5 Review of part-time hours

At the request of an employee, the hours worked by the employee will be reviewed annually. Where the employee is regularly working more than their specified contract hours then such contract hours may be adjusted by the employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked. The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment if:

- (i) the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers compensation; and
- (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (iii) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review, should, however, be such as to readily accommodate the needs of the Employer, roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

13.6 Casual employment

- (a) A casual employee is an employee engaged as such on an hourly basis.
- (b) A casual employee will be paid an hourly rate equal to 1/38th of the weekly rate appropriate to the employee's classification plus a casual loading of 25%.
- (c) Casual employees will be paid a minimum of 4 hours for each engagement.

A casual employee will be paid a shift allowances calculated on the ordinary rate of pay excluding the casual loading with the casual loading component then added to the penalty rate of pay.

13.7 Casual Conversion

- (a) Where a casual employee has been rostered on a regular and systematic basis over a period of 26 weeks, the employer or the employee has the right to request conversion to permanent employment:
 - (i) on a full-time basis where the employee has worked 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week (excluding overtime) throughout the period of casual employment; or
 - (ii) on a permanent part-time basis where the employee has worked a regular number of hours each week or fortnight (depending upon the roster) throughout the period of casual employment. Such part-time engagement would be on the basis of the same number of hours as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the employer and the employee.
- (b) The employee or the employer may consent to or refuse the request, but shall not unreasonably withhold agreement to such a request.
- (c) Casual conversion will not apply where a casual has covered absences of permanent staff that are expected to return to work.

14 Termination of Employment

- 14.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES and applies the following scale of notice to permanent employees, to be worked out or payment in lieu made thereof:

Period of continuous service	Period of notice
Less than 1 year	1 week
1 year and less than 3 years	2 weeks
3 years and less than 5 years	3 weeks
5 years and over	4 weeks

- 14.2 In addition to the notice above, employees over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of the notice, with not less than two years continuous service, shall be entitled to an additional weeks' notice.

14.3 Notice of termination by an employee:

- (a) The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned.
- (b) Subject to the requirements of the FW Act, if an employee fails to give the required notice the employee will forfeit any monies due to the employee on termination under this agreement or the NES, an amount not exceeding one week.
- (c) Notwithstanding, notice required for a casual employee shall be one hour.

15 Redundancy

- 15.1 In addition to the notice prescribed by Clause 14, Termination, an employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by the employer if the employee's employment is terminated:

- (a) at the employer's initiative because the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary & customary turnover of labour; or
- (b) because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer.

15.2 Redundancy Pay

- (a) Where the employee is under 45 years of age, the employer shall pay the employee:

Minimum Years of Service	Redundancy Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	4 weeks' pay
2 years and less than 3 years	7 weeks' pay
3 years and less than 4 years	10 weeks' pay
4 years and less than 5 years	12 weeks' pay
5 years and less than 6 years	14 weeks' pay

6 years and over 16 weeks' pay

- (b) Where the employee is 45 years of age or over, the employer shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

Minimum Years of Service	Redundancy Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	5 weeks' pay
2 years and less than 3 years	8.75 weeks' pay
3 years and less than 4 years	12.5 weeks' pay
4 years and less than 5 years	15 weeks' pay
5 years and less than 6 years	17.5 weeks' pay
6 years and over	20 weeks' pay

- (c) "Weeks' pay" means the Employee's average actual weekly earnings over the preceding twelve months from the date of termination, and shall include in addition to the ordinary pay and over-agreement payments and the following if applicable:

- (i) Shift allowances
- (ii) Weekend penalties
- (iii) Regularly received In-Charge, on-call and recall allowances. To be clear "regular" means the payment would have to be paid every pay period in the employee's pay for the preceding six months prior to the redundancy taking place.

15.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may, at the employer's option, make payment instead of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

15.4 Employee leaving during notice period

- (a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice.
- (b) The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to any payment in lieu of any remaining notice.

15.5 Job search entitlement

- (a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

- (b) Such pay shall be at the Base Rate of Pay. Subject to the provision of at least 3 days' notice, the day or days off as requested by the employee, shall not be unreasonably withheld by the employer.
- (c) The employer may reduce the period of notice referred to above. At all times the granting of days off shall be subject to the considerations of the resident's needs and business operations.
- (d) If the employee has been allowed paid leave during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for any time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration is sufficient.

16 Classifications

- 16.1 Nursing classification definitions are set out in Schedule A—Classification Definitions.
- 16.2 Aged Care classification definitions are set out in Schedule B – Classification Definitions.
- 16.3 Employers must advise their employees in writing of their classification upon commencement and of any subsequent changes to their classification.

17 Minimum Hourly Wages

- 17.1 These minimum hourly wages will apply from the commencement of the first full pay period on or after:

18 Progression through Pay Points

- 18.1 Unless otherwise accommodated, progression for all nursing classifications for which there is more than one pay point will be by annual movement to the next pay point, or in the case of a part-time or casual employee 1,786 hours of experience, having regard to the acquisition and use of skill described in the definitions contained within Schedule A to this Agreement.

19 Allowances

19.1 Clothing and equipment:

- (a) Employees are required by the employer to wear uniforms as directed.
- (b) The employer will pay employees, a uniform allowance and laundry allowance at the rate set out in of Schedule C per week.
- (c) The uniform allowance, but not the laundry allowance, will be paid during all absences on leave, except absences on long service leave and absence on personal/carer's leave beyond 21 days.
- (d) Where an employer requires an employee to wear rubber gloves, special clothing or where safety equipment is required for the work performed by an employee, the employer must reimburse the employee for the cost of purchasing such special clothing or safety equipment, except where such clothing or equipment is provided by the employer.

19.2 Meal allowances on overtime

- (a) An employee will be supplied with an adequate meal where an employer has adequate cooking and dining facilities or be paid a meal allowance, in addition to any overtime payment at the following rates:
 - (i) For Nursing classifications - Schedule C
 - (ii) Aged Care Classifications – Schedule C
- (b) when required to work after the usual finishing hour of work beyond one hour or, in the case of shift workers, when the overtime work on any shift exceeds one hour.
- (c) provided that where such overtime work completed by an employee exceeds four hours a further meal allowance at the rate set out in Schedule C will be paid.

19.3 Clause 19.2 will not apply when an employee could reasonably return home for a meal within the meal break.

19.4 On call allowance (Nursing classifications only)

- (a) An on call allowance is paid to an employee who is required by the employer to be on call at their private residence, or at any other mutually agreed place. The employee is entitled to receive the following additional amounts for each 24 hour period or part thereof:
 - (i) between rostered shifts or ordinary hours Monday to Friday inclusive – the amount set out in Schedule C.
 - (ii) between rostered shifts or ordinary hours on a Saturday– the amount set out in Schedule C.
 - (iii) between rostered shifts or ordinary hours on a Sunday, public holiday or any day when the employee is not rostered to work– the amount set out in Schedule C.

- (b) For the purpose of this clause the whole of the on call period is calculated according to the day on which the major portion of the on call period falls.

19.5 Travelling, transport and fares

- (a) An employee required and authorised to use their own motor vehicle in the course of their duties will be paid not less than the allowance set out in Schedule C.
- (b) When an employee is involved in travelling on duty, if the employer cannot provide the appropriate transport, all reasonably incurred expenses in respect to fares, meals and accommodation will be met by the employer on production of receipted account(s) or other evidence acceptable to the employer.

19.6 Continuing Education Allowance (Nursing classifications only)

- (a) A registered nurse or enrolled nurse who holds a continuing education qualification in a clinical field, in addition to the qualification leading to registration or enrolment, shall be paid an allowance subject to the conditions set out in this clause.
- (b) The qualification must be accepted by the employer to be directly relevant to the competency and skills used by the employee in the duties of the position.
- (c) The allowance is not payable to Deputy Directors of Nursing or Directors of Nursing unless it can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the employer that more than fifty per cent of the employee's time is spent doing clinical work.
- (d) The allowance is not payable to Clinical Nurse Specialists, Clinical Nurse Consultants or Clinical Nurse Educators.
- (e) A registered nurse or enrolled nurse holding more than one relevant qualification is only entitled to the payment of one allowance, being the allowance of the highest monetary value.
- (f) The employee claiming entitlement to a continuing education allowance must provide evidence to the employer that they hold that qualification.
- (g) A registered nurse who holds a relevant postgraduate certificate in a clinical field (not including a hospital certificate) that is accepted by the employer to be directly relevant to the competency and skills used by the registered nurse in carrying out the duties of the position shall be paid the weekly allowance set out in Schedule C.
- (h) A registered nurse who holds a relevant postgraduate diploma or degree in a clinical field (other than a nursing undergraduate degree) that is accepted by the employer to be directly relevant to the competency and skills used by the registered nurse in carrying out the duties of the position shall be paid the weekly allowance set out in Schedule C.
- (i) A registered nurse who holds a relevant master's degree or doctorate in a clinical field that is accepted by the employer to be directly relevant to the competency and skills used by the registered nurse in carrying out the duties of the position shall be paid the weekly allowance set out in Schedule C.

- (j) An enrolled nurse who holds a relevant certificate IV qualification in a clinical field (not including a certificate IV qualification which has the effect of upgrading the qualification leading to enrolment) that is accepted by the employer to be directly relevant to the competency and skills used by the enrolled nurse in carrying out the duties of the position shall be paid the weekly allowance set out in Schedule C.
- (k) The allowances set out in sub-clauses subclauses (g), (h), (i) and (j) are not included in the employee's ordinary rate of pay and will not constitute part of the all-purpose rate.
- (l) A registered nurse or enrolled nurse who is employed on a part-time or casual basis shall be paid these allowances on a pro rata basis.
- (m) The rates for these allowances shall be adjusted in accordance with increases in other wage-related allowances contained in this Agreement.

19.7 In Charge Allowance (Nursing classifications only)

- (a) A registered nurse who is designated to be in charge during the day, evening or night of a residential aged care facility shall be paid in addition to his or her appropriate salary, whilst so in charge, the per shift allowance set out in Schedule C.
- (b) This sub-clause shall only apply to registered nurses in A 6.1 of Schedule A.

19.8 Leading hand allowance (Aged Care Employee Classifications only)

- (a) A leading hand is an employee who is placed in charge of not less than two other employees of a substantially similar classification but does not include any employee whose classification denotes supervisory responsibility.
- (b) A leading hand will be paid a weekly allowance of the amount specified by the item number in accordance with the following scale:

Leading hand in charge of -	Weekly allowance
2-5 other employees	As per Schedule C
6-10 other employees	As per Schedule C
11-15 other employees	As per Schedule C

This allowance will be part of salary for all purposes of this agreement.

- (c) An employee who works less than 38 hours per week will be entitled to the allowances prescribed by this clause in the same proportion as the average hours worked each week bears to 38 ordinary hours.

19.9 Nauseous work allowance (Aged Care Classifications only)

- (a) The allowance set out in Schedule C per hour or part thereof will be paid to an employee in any aged care classification if they are engaged in handling linen of a nauseous nature other than linen sealed in airtight containers and/or for work which is of an unusually dirty or offensive nature having regard to the duty normally performed by such employee in such classification.

19.10 Team Leader Allowance (Assistants in Nursing only)

- (a) A Team Leader is an AIN who holds a relevant Certificate IV or other appropriate qualifications/ experience acceptable to the Employer.
- (b) A Team Leader will mentor, lead and supervise the work of other care staff (AINs and/or aged care classifications) as rostered by the Employer.
- (c) A Team Leader will be paid an hourly allowance as per Schedule C

20 Payment of Wages

- 20.1 Wages must be paid fortnightly unless otherwise mutually agreed up to a monthly maximum period.
- 20.2 Employees will be paid by cash, cheque or electronic funds transfer, as determined by the employer, into the bank or financial institution account nominated by the employee.
- 20.3 When notice of termination of employment has been given by an employee or an employee's services have been terminated by the employer, payment of all wages and other monies owing to an employee will be made to the employee upon the next pay cycle day.
- 20.4 Notwithstanding the above, an employer will not be held liable for any unforeseen event outside the control of the employer which prevents the employer's ability to meet the requirements of this clause, for example bank error or delay.

21 Superannuation

21.1 Superannuation legislation

- (a) Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of employers and employees. Under superannuation legislation individual employees generally have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. If an employee does not choose a superannuation fund, any superannuation fund nominated in the agreement covering the employee applies.
- (b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

21.2 Employer contributions

- (a) An employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an employee as will avoid the employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that employee.

21.3 Voluntary employee contributions

- (a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.5.

- (b) An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice to their employer.
- (c) The employer must pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.2 and 21.4 no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction authorised under clauses 21.2 or 21.4(a) was made.

21.4 Superannuation fund

- (a) Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.1(a) to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.2 and 21.4(a) to one of the following superannuation funds:
 - (i) Health Employees Superannuation Trust of Australia (HESTA), which offers a MySuper product;
 - (ii) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector scheme.

22 Salary Packaging to Superannuation (Only)

- 22.1 Permanent employees may be able to make voluntary pre-tax contributions or payments through a written salary packaging agreement between the employer and the employee. The employer will pay the salary packaging amount in accordance with the salary packaging agreement. The salary packaging arrangements pertain only to packing superannuation contributions.
- 22.2 An employee may apply to have their ordinary time earnings reduced by an amount nominated by them as a salary packaging contribution for their benefit.
- 22.3 The total value of the reduced salary and the agreed value of the benefits provided will not be less than the amount that would otherwise be paid if the salary packaging arrangement was not in place.
- 22.4 The Employer recognises the need for employees to consider independent financial and taxation advice and recommend that employees consider such advice prior to entering into salary packaging arrangements.
- 22.5 In the event that the law governing superannuation and/or taxation make the objective of this clause ineffective, unattainable or illegal, the employer will advise the employee concerned. The salary packaging contribution arrangement will be terminated or amended to comply with such laws.
- 22.6 Unless otherwise agreed by the employer, an employee may revoke or vary their salary packaging contribution/payment by giving not less than one month's written notice, provided the terms of any other agreement relating to the salary packaging benefit are met.

23 Hours of Work

23.1 Ordinary Hours of Work

- (a) The ordinary hours of work will be 38 hours per week, or an average of 38 hours per week worked over 76 hours per fortnight or 114 hours per 21 days or 152 hours per 4 week period, and will be worked in a period of 28 calendar days of not more than 20 work days in roster cycle; or
- (b) The shift length or ordinary hours of work per day will be a maximum of 10 hours exclusive of meal breaks.
- (c) The hours of work on any day will be continuous except for meal breaks.

23.2 Span of Hours

- (a) The ordinary hours of work for a day worker will be between 6.00 am and 6.00 pm Monday to Friday.
- (b) A shift worker is an employee who works ordinary hours outside the day worker span of hours.

23.3 Rostered Days Off

- (a) Employees, other than a casual employee, will be free from duty for not less than two full days in each week or four full days in each fortnight or eight full days in each 28 day cycle. Where practicable, days off will be consecutive.

23.4 Rest breaks between Rostered Work

- (a) An employee will be allowed a rest break of ten hours between the completion of one ordinary work period or shift and the commencement of another ordinary work period or shift, except by agreement where it may be 8 hours.

23.5 Rosters

- (a) Employees will work in accordance with a weekly or fortnightly roster fixed by the employer.
- (b) The roster will set out employees' daily ordinary working hours and starting and finishing times and will be displayed in a place conveniently accessible to employees at least seven days for all employees before the commencement of the roster period.
- (c) It is not obligatory for the employer to display any roster of the ordinary hours of work of casual or relieving staff.
- (d) Unless the employer otherwise agrees, an employee desiring a roster change will give seven days' notice except where the employee is ill or in an emergency.
- (e) Seven days' notice of a change of roster will be given by the employer to an employee. Except that, a roster may be altered at any time to enable the functions of the facility to be carried out where another employee is absent from work due to illness, ceremonial leave, family violence leave or in an emergency. Where any such alteration requires an employee working on a day which would otherwise have been the employee's day off, the day off instead will be as mutually arranged.

- (f) This clause will not apply where the only change to the roster of a part-time employee is the mutually agreed addition of extra hours to be worked such that the part-time employee still has two rostered days off in that week or four rostered days of in that fortnight, as the case may be.

23.6 Saturday and Sunday Work

- (a) Where an employee is rostered to work ordinary hours between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday, the employee will be paid a loading of 50% of their ordinary rate of pay for the hours worked during this period
- (b) Where an employee is rostered to work ordinary hours between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday, all employees will be paid a loading of 75% of their ordinary rate of pay for the hours worked during this period.
- (c) Casual employees will be paid in accordance with clauses 23.6 (a) and (b). For Aged Care Employees, the rates prescribed in clauses 23.6(a) and(b) will be in substitution for and not cumulative upon the casual loading prescribed in clause 13.6
- (d) These extra rates will be in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift penalties prescribed at Clause 25 – Shift work.

23.7 Breaks

(a) Meal breaks

- (i) An employee who works in excess of five hours will be entitled to an unpaid meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than 60 minutes. Provided that, by agreement of an individual employee, an employee who works shifts of six hours or less may forfeit the meal break.
- (ii) Where an employee is required to remain available for duty during a meal break, the employee will be paid an 'on call during meal break allowance' as provided for in Item 41 in Schedule E, provided such that only one allowance shall be payable in any period of 24 hours. If an employee is recalled to work during the meal break, then overtime will be paid for all time worked during such meal break.

(b) Tea breaks

- (i) Every employee will be entitled to a paid 10 minute tea break in each four hours worked at a time to be agreed between the employee and employer.
- (ii) Subject to agreement between the employer and employee, such breaks may alternatively be taken as one 20 minute tea break.
- (iii) Tea breaks will count as time worked.

24 Overtime

24.1 Overtime penalty rates

- (a) Nurses: Hours worked in excess of the ordinary hours on any day or shift prescribed in clause 23 are to be paid as follows:
 - (i) Monday to Saturday (inclusive)–time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter;
 - (ii) Sunday–double time;
 - (iii) Public holidays–double time and a half.
- (b) Aged Care employees: sub-clause (a) above shall apply, except that all overtime worked on a Saturday will be paid at double time.

24.2 Overtime penalties as prescribed in clause 24.1(a) do not apply to Registered Nurses Levels 4 and 5.

24.3 Overtime rates under this clause will be in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift premiums prescribed in clause 23.6-Saturday and Sunday work, clause 25- Shiftwork and clause 28 – Public Holiday.

24.4 Part time employees

- (a) Part-time employees will be paid overtime in accordance with the rates in clause 24.1, in the following circumstances:
 - (i) All time worked by part-time employees in excess of 38 hours per week or 76 hours per fortnight will be overtime.
 - (ii) For Nurses, all time worked in excess of the rostered daily ordinary full-time hours will be overtime.
 - (iii) For Aged Care Employees, subject to clause 13.4(c), time worked in excess of their rostered hours on any one day will be overtime.

24.5 Time off instead of payment for overtime

- (a) By mutual agreement, an employee may be compensated by way of time off instead of payment of overtime (equivalent to the overtime payment that would have been made eg 2 hours worked at the rate of time and a half equates to 3 hours' time off) on the following basis:
 - (i) Time off instead of payment for overtime must be taken at overtime rates within three months of it being accrued.
 - (ii) Where it is not possible for an employee to take the time off, instead of payment for overtime, within the three month period, or on termination of employment for any reason, it is to be paid out at the appropriate overtime rate base on the rates of pay applying at the time payment is made.
 - (iii) An employee cannot be compelled to take time off instead of overtime.

24.6 Rest period after overtime

- (a) When overtime work is necessary, it will, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days or shifts, including overtime.

- (b) An employee, other than a casual employee, who works so much overtime between the termination of their ordinary work on one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next day, that they have not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times, will be released after completion of such overtime until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such an absence.
- (c) If, on the instruction of the employer, an employee resumes or continues to work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, they will be paid at the rate of double time until released from duty for such period. The employee will then be entitled to be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for rostered ordinary hours occurring during the absence.
- (d) Notwithstanding, 10 hours in the above sub-clauses of clause 24.6 may be reduced by mutual agreement to a period of no less than 8 hours.

24.7 Rest break during overtime

An employee working overtime will take a paid rest break of 20 minutes after each four hours of overtime worked if required to continue to work after the break.

24.8 Recall to work when on call

An employee, who is required to be on call and who is recalled to work, will be paid for a minimum of four hours work at the appropriate overtime rate.

24.9 Recall to work when not on call

- (a) An employee who is not required to be on call and who is recalled to work after leaving the employer's premises will be paid for a minimum of four hours work at the appropriate overtime rate.
- (b) The time spent travelling to and from the place of duty will be deemed to be time worked. Except that, where an employee is recalled within three hours of their rostered commencement time, and the employee remains at work, only the time spent in travelling to work will be included with the actual time worked for the purposes of the overtime payment.
- (c) An employee who is recalled to work will not be obliged to work for four hours if the work for which the employee was recalled is completed within a shorter period.

24.10 An employee who is required to be on call and who is required to perform work by the employer via telephone or other electronic communication away from the workplace will be paid at the appropriate overtime rate for a minimum of one hours work. Multiple electronic requests made and concluded within the same hour shall be compensated within the same one hour's overtime payment. Time worked beyond one hour will be rounded to the nearest 15 minutes.

25 Shift Work

25.1 Shift penalties

- (a) Employees working afternoon or night shift shall be paid the following percentages in addition to their ordinary rate, for such shift.

Provided that employees who work less than 38 hours per week will only be entitled to the additional rates where their shift commence prior to 6:00 am or finish subsequent to 6:00pm.

- (i) 10% for afternoon shift commencing after 10:00 a.m. and before 1:00 p.m.
- (ii) 12.5% for afternoon shift commencing at or after 1:00 p.m. and before 4:00 p.m.
- (iii) 15% for night shift commencing at or after 4:00 p.m. and before 4:00 a.m.
- (iv) 10% for night shift commencing at or after 4:00 a.m. and before 6:00 a.m.
- (b) The shift penalties prescribed in this clause will not apply to shiftwork performed by an employee on Saturday, Sunday or public holiday where the extra payment prescribed by clause 23.6—Saturday and Sunday work, clause 28—Public holidays and clause 24 – Overtime applies.
- (c) The provisions of this clause do not apply to Registered Nurse Levels 4 and 5.

26 Higher Duties

- 26.1 An employee engaged in any duties carrying a higher wage rate than the classification in which they are ordinarily employed in any one day or shift will be paid at the higher wage rate for:
- (a) the time so worked for two hours or less; or
 - (b) full day or shift where the time so worked exceeds two hours.
- Higher duties allowance does not apply to Registered Nurse levels 4 and 5.

27 Annual Leave

- 27.1 Annual leave is accumulated and accessed in accordance with the NES and subject to the following provisions:

27.2 Quantum of annual leave for Nursing Staff

- (a) Annual leave on full pay is to be granted in accordance with the NES as follows:

Employment Type	Weeks of Annual Leave
Full time employee	5 weeks
Full time shift worker	6 weeks
Part time employee	5 weeks
Part time shift worker	6 weeks

- (b) For the purposes of this subclause, a shift worker is an employee who is regularly rostered over seven days a week and regularly works on weekends.

27.3 Quantum of annual leave for Aged Care Staff

- (a) Annual leave on full pay is to be granted in accordance with the NES as follows:

Employment Type	Weeks of Annual Leave
Full time employee	4 weeks
Full time shift worker	5 weeks
Part time employee	4 weeks
Part time shift worker	5 weeks

- (b) For the purposes of this subclause, a shift worker is an employee who
- (i) works more than four ordinary hours on 10 or more weekends in an anniversary year; and / or
 - (ii) is regularly rostered to work their ordinary hours outside the ordinary hours of work as a day worker as defined.

27.4 Taking of leave

- (a) The taking of annual leave is based on mutual agreement. The employer will not unreasonably refuse to a request to take a period of annual leave.
- (b) Where an employee has accrued excessive annual leave (being twice the employee's annual leave accrual), the Employer may require the employee to take such leave at a time directed by the Employer. Any such direction by the Employer for an employee to take a period of annual leave must:
- (i) relate to a minimum period of leave of one week;
 - (ii) provide at least 8 weeks' notice; and
 - (iii) ensure the employee maintains a balance of at least six weeks annual leave.

27.5 Payment for annual leave

- (a) An employee will be paid the amount of wages they would have received for ordinary time worked had they not been on leave during that period. The employee may request to be paid for an annual leave period in full at the start of the annual leave period.

27.6 Cashing out of Annual Leave

- (a) Annual leave credited to an employee may be cashed out, subject to the following conditions:
- (i) paid annual leave must not be cashed out if the cashing out would result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 4 weeks; and
 - (ii) each cashing out of a particular amount of paid annual leave must be by a separate agreement in writing between the employer and the employee; and

- (iii) the employee must be paid at least the full amount that would have been payable to the employee had the employee taken the leave that the employee has forgone.

27.7 Annual leave loading

- (a) In addition to their ordinary pay, an employee, other than a shift worker, will be paid an annual leave loading of 17.5% of their ordinary pay during a period of annual leave.
- (b) During a period of annual leave, shift workers, in addition to their ordinary pay, will be paid the higher of:
 - (i) an annual leave loading of 17.5% of ordinary pay; or
 - (ii) the weekend and shift penalties the employee would have received had they not been on leave during the relevant period.

27.8 Payment of annual leave on termination

On the termination of their employment, an employee will be paid their untaken annual leave.

28 Public Holidays

28.1 Public holidays are provided for in the NES. This clause contains additional provisions.

28.2 Payment for work done on public holidays:

- (i) All work done by an employee during their ordinary shifts on a public holiday, including a substituted day, will be paid at 250% of their ordinary rate of pay. Alternatively, if the employee elects, the employee will be paid half-time extra (50%) for all time worked in addition to the weekly rate and have one ordinary working day added to the period of annual leave. This additional annual leave shall not attract the annual leave loading prescribed at Clause 27.7
- (ii) The election in clause 28.2(i) will be made on the commencement of employment and then on the anniversary date each year. The employee may not alter such election during the year except with the agreement of the employer.
- (iii) Payments and entitlement under this clause are instead of any additional rate for shift or weekend work which would otherwise be payable had the shift not been a public holiday.
- (b) For the purposes of this agreement, the following shall be deemed to be public holidays:
 - (i) New Year's Day; Australia Day; Good Friday; Easter Saturday; Easter Sunday; Easter Monday; Anzac Day; Queen's Birthday; Labour Day; Christmas Day; Boxing Day.

28.3 Public Holiday Substitution – State Law

- (a) If, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of a State or Territory, a day or part-day is substituted for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of clause 28.2(b), then the substituted day or part-day is the public holiday.

- (b) Subject to subclause 28.2(b), any other day duly proclaimed and observed as a public holiday within the area in which the facility is situated.
- (c) In addition to those named public holidays specified in clause 28.2(b), employees shall be entitled to an extra public holiday each year. Such public holiday shall occur on a day between Christmas and New Year within the days Monday to Friday inclusive and not coinciding with a date that is already a gazetted public holiday for that calendar year;
- (d) In any one year, where an “additional” public holiday or half public holiday is proclaimed and applied in addition to those Public Holidays named within the NES, this subclause shall not apply. To be clear, an “additional” public holiday is not to be mistaken for a “substitute” day.

28.4 Public holiday substitution

- (a) An employer and the employees may, by agreement, substitute another day for a public holiday.

28.5 Public holidays occurring on rostered days off

- (a) All full-time employees will receive a day's ordinary pay for public holidays that occur on their rostered day off except where the public holidays fall on Saturday or Sunday with respect to Monday–Friday employees.

28.6 Part-time employees

- (a) A part-time employee will only be entitled to payment for those public holidays that fall on days they are normally rostered to work.
- (b) A part-time employee who is rostered off on a public holiday they would ordinarily work will be paid their ordinary pay for that day.

28.7 Casual employees

- (a) A casual employee will be paid only for those public holidays they work at the total rate of 250% for hours worked.
- (b) Payments under clause 28.2 are instead of and any casual loading otherwise payable under this agreement.

- 29.1 An employee who is legitimately required by Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island tradition to be absent from work for ceremonial purposes will be entitled to up to ten working days unpaid leave in any one year, with the approval of the employer.

30 Personal / carer's leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES

- 30.1 In addition, an employee may use accumulated personal/ carer's leave when on workers compensation only where his or her workers compensation payments are less than his or her normal full pay. In this case a personal/ carer's leave entitlement may be used to make up the difference between the full normal pay and the workers compensation payment.

31 Long Service Leave

31.1 An employee's entitlement to long service leave shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW).

31.2 Quantum of Long Service Leave

- (a) The following amounts are in substitution for entitlements under the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW), Every employee after 10 years' continuous service with the same employer shall be entitled to 2 months long service leave on full pay. After 15 years' continuous service to an additional one month long service on full pay, and for each five years continual service thereafter to an additional one and one-half months' long service leave on full pay rather than 4.333 weeks as prescribed by the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW).

31.3 Taking of Long Service Leave

- (a) The employer shall give to each employee at least one month's notice of the date from which it is proposed that the employee's long service leave shall be given and taken. Such leave shall be taken as soon as practicable having regard to the needs of the facility, or, where the employer and the employee agree, such leave may be postponed to an agreed date.
- (b) In such a case, where the employer and employee agree to postpone the taking of leave, the employee may, subject to mutual agreement, be paid for that leave at the rate of pay applicable at the time of the agreement and not at the rate of pay applicable at the time that the leave is taken. For any such agreement to be valid, it must be in writing and be signed by both the employer and the employee.
- (c) Under this Agreement, an employee will be able to apply to take long service leave after five years of continuous service. In order to access this leave, the employee must provide at least 6 months' notice of the proposed leave period.

31.4 For the purposes of this clause:

- (a) Continuous service in the same facility prior to the coming into force of this agreement shall be taken into account, and:
- (b) Continuous service shall be deemed not to have been broken by:
 - (i) Absence of an employee from the facility while a member of the Defence Forces of the Commonwealth in time of war;
 - (ii) Any period of absence on leave without pay not exceeding six months, excluding Parental Leave

One month equals four and one-third weeks.

31.5 Subject to clause 31, where an employee has acquired a right to long service leave, then:

- (a) If before such leave has been entered upon, the employment of such employee is terminated, the employee shall be entitled to receive the monetary value of the leave to which such employee has been entitled computed at the rate of salary which such employee was receiving immediately prior to the termination of employment.

- (b) Where an employee dies and any long service leave:
 - (i) to which the employee was entitled has not been taken, or
 - (ii) accrued upon termination of the services of the employee by reason of the employee's death and has not been taken,
 - (iii) The employer shall pay to the employee's estate in full the ordinary pay that would have been payable to the employee in respect of long service leave less any amount already paid to the employee in respect of that leave.

- 34.2 Each employer may make training available to nurses other than Nursing Assistants to assist those employees to maintain professional registration or endorsement.
- 34.3 Each employee shall provide to their employer details of their attendance at in- service training and the employer shall keep a record of this attendance.
- 34.4 Upon termination of the employee's employment the employer shall provide to the employee a written statement of the hours of in-service training attended by the employee.
- 34.5 Where practicable, such training shall be provided to employees during the normal rostered hours of work. Where it is not practicable to provide such training during the normal rostered hours of work then:
- (a) Employees shall attend in-service training outside their normal rostered working hours when required to do so by the employer.
 - (b) An employer shall provide employees with two weeks' notice of the requirement to attend training outside of their normal rostered working hours.

- (c) attendance at such training shall be paid at ordinary rates and shall be treated as time worked for the purposes of the Agreement.
- (d) Attendance at such in-service training outside the normal rostered working time of an employee shall not affect the ordinary rate paid to the employee during normal rostered working time.

35 Attendance at Meetings and Fire Drills / Mandatory Training

- 35.1 Subject to clause 35.3, an employee required to attend training outside the ordinary hours of work in satisfaction of the requirements for compulsory fire safety practices (e.g., fire drill and evacuation procedures), shall be entitled to be paid the "ordinary rate" for the actual time spent in attendance at such practices.
- 35.2 Subject to clause 35.3, any employee required to attend Workplace Health and Safety Committee and/or Board of Management meetings in the capacity of employee representative shall, if such meetings are held outside the ordinary hours of work, be entitled to receive payment at the ordinary rate for the actual time spent in attendance at such meetings.
- 35.3 Where practicable, the Employer will deliver the above training / meetings within the employees' ordinary hours of work. Where this is not practicable, up to 8 hours of mandatory training per year may be held outside an employee's ordinary hours and be paid at the employee's base rate of pay. Mandatory training that falls outside an employee's ordinary hours and is in excess of 8 per year, shall be paid at the applicable overtime penalty rate. The minimum engagement for training that is outside an employee's ordinary hours will be 2 hours.

36 Leave to deal with Family and Domestic Violence

- 36.1 This clause applies to all employees, including casuals.
- 36.2 Definitions

- (a) In this clause:

family and domestic violence means violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a family member of an employee that seeks to coerce or control the employee and that causes them harm or to be fearful.

family member means:

- (i) a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee; or
 - (ii) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the employee; or
 - (iii) a person related to the employee according to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander kinship rules.
- (b) A reference to a spouse or de facto partner in the definition of family member in clause 36.2(a) includes a former spouse or de facto partner.

- 36.3 Entitlement to leave

- (a) An employee is entitled to 5 days' paid, and where required, a further 5 days' unpaid, leave (all leave is unpaid for casual employees) to deal with family and domestic violence, as follows:
 - (i) the leave is available in full at the start of each 12 month period of the employee's employment; and
 - (ii) the leave does not accumulate from year to year; and
 - (iii) is available in full to part-time and casual employees.
- (b) A period of leave to deal with family and domestic violence may be less than a day by agreement between the employee and the Employer.

36.4 Taking leave to deal with family and domestic violence

- (a) An employee may take leave to deal with family and domestic violence if the employee:
 - (i) is experiencing family and domestic violence; and
 - (ii) needs to do something to deal with the impact of the family and domestic violence and it is impractical for the employee to do that thing outside their ordinary hours of work.
- (b) The reasons for which an employee may take leave include making arrangements for their safety or the safety of a family member (including relocation), attending urgent court hearings, or accessing police services.

36.5 Service and continuity

The time an employee is on unpaid leave to deal with family and domestic violence does not count as service but does not break the employee's continuity of service. Paid leave will count as service.

36.6 Notice and evidence requirements

(a) Notice

An employee must give the Employer notice of the taking of leave by the employee under this clause. The notice:

- (i) must be given to the employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and
- (ii) must advise the employer of the period, or expected period, of the leave.

(b) Evidence

- (i) An employee who has given the Employer notice of the taking of leave under this clause must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for the purpose specified in clause 36.4.
- (ii) Depending on the circumstances such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court or a family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

36.7 Confidentiality

- (a) Employers must take steps to ensure information concerning any notice an employee has given, or evidence an employee has provided under clause 36.6, is treated confidentially, as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so.
- (b) Nothing in clause 36 prevents the Employer from disclosing information provided by an employee if the disclosure is required by an Australian law or is necessary to protect the life, health or safety of the employee or another person.

The Employer acknowledges that information concerning an employee's experience of family and domestic violence is sensitive and if mishandled can have adverse consequences for the employee. The Employer and employee may consult about the handling of sensitive information.

36.8 Compliance

An employee is not entitled to take leave under clause 36 unless the employee complies with clause 36.
