ROSENEATH AGED CARE, NSWNMA, ANMF NSW BRANCH AND HSU NEW SOUTH WALES BRANCH ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2020

Aged care industry

COMMISSIONER MATHESON

SYDNEY, 7 OCTOBER 2021

Application for approval of the Roseneath Aged Care, NSWNMA, ANMF NSW Branch and HSU New South Wales Branch Enterprise Agreement 2020.

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Roseneath Aged Care, NSWNMA, ANMF NSW Branch and HSU New South Wales Branch Enterprise Agreement 2020 (Agreement). The application was made by Roseneath Aged Care Centre Pty Ltd T/A Roseneath Aged Care Centre (Applicant) pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (Act). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] Clause 12.3(b) contains an apparent error stating:

‘Before commencing part-time employment, the Employer and Employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked hours to be worked and the days of the week and shifts that will be worked’ (emphasis added).

[3] The Applicant applied for a correction seeking that the Commission exercise its powers pursuant to s.586 of the Act so that the clause reads:

‘Before commencing part-time employment, the Employer and Employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked and the days of the week and shifts that will be worked’.

[4] I am satisfied that this amendment should be allowed and that it is appropriate to do so pursuant to s.586 of the Act. I make the amendment.

[5] Clause 38.1 of the Agreement prescribes shift penalties. The table in clause 38.1(a) contains the words:

‘Afternoon shift commencing after 10.00 a.m. and before 1:00 p.m’ (emphasis added).

[6] The Applicant applied for a correction seeking that the Commission exercise its powers pursuant to s.586 of the Act so that the clause reads:

‘Afternoon shift commencing at 10.00 a.m. and before 1:00 p.m’.

[7] I am satisfied that this amendment should be allowed and that it is appropriate to do so pursuant to s.586 of the Act. I make the amendment.

[8] I observe that certain provisions of the Agreement may be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES). However, noting clause 6.2 of the Agreement, I am satisfied that the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[9] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached at Annexure A of this decision (Undertakings). I am satisfied that the effect of accepting the Undertakings is not likely to:

(a) cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement; or

(b) result in substantial changes to the Agreement.

[10] Pursuant to s.190(3) of the Act, I accept the Undertakings.

[11] Subject to the Undertakings, and on the basis of the materials before the Commission, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 of the Act as are relevant to the application for approval of the Agreement have been met.

[12] The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation New South Wales Branch and Health Services Union NSW Branch, being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have given notice under s.183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s.201(2) of the Act, I note that the Agreement covers the organisations.

[13] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 14 October 2021. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2024.

- (b) At the time of engagement an Employer will inform each Employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part time or casual basis. An Employer may direct an Employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the Employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

12.2 Full-time Employment

A full-time Employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 26(a) of the Agreement.

12.3 Part time Employment

- (a) A part-time Employee is an Employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) Before commencing part-time employment, the Employer and Employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked and the days of the week and shifts that will be worked.
- (c) A part time Employee will be paid a minimum of three hours pay for each engagement except as follows:
 - (i) Part time Home Care classifications will be paid a minimum of two hours pay for each engagement.

- (ii) All part time Employees will be paid a minimum of two hours pay for each engagement on a Public Holiday.
- (d) The terms of the agreement in clause 12.3(b) may be varied by agreement between the Employer and Employee and recorded in writing.
- (e) Unless otherwise stated, the terms of this Agreement will apply on a pro rata basis to part-time Employees on the basis that the ordinary weekly hours for full-time Employees are 38.
- (f) A part time Employee may be requested to work reasonable additional hours in accordance with clause 26 Ordinary Hours of Work, clause 32 Rosters and clause 37 Overtime in this Agreement.

12.4 Annual Review of Part Time Hours

- (a) At the request of an Employee, the hours worked by the Employee will be reviewed annually.
- (b) Where the Employee is regularly working more than their specified contracted hours then such contracted hours shall be adjusted by the Employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked, which may include moving to full-time employment.
- (c) The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an Employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers compensation; and
 - (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (d) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review, should, however, be such as to readily reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

12.5 Casual Employment

- (a) A casual Employee is an Employee engaged as such on an hourly basis.
- (b) A casual Employee will be paid an hourly rate equal to 1/38th of the weekly rate appropriate to the Employee's classification plus the 25% casual loading.

- (b) A regular casual Employee is a casual Employee who has in the preceding period of 12 months worked a pattern of hours on an ongoing basis which, without significant adjustment, the Employee could continue to perform as a full-time Employee or part-time Employee under the provisions of the Agreement.
- (c) A regular casual Employee who has worked equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months' casual employment may request to have their employment converted to full-time employment.
- (d) A regular casual Employee who has worked less than equivalent full-time hours over the preceding period of 12 months' casual employment may request to have their employment converted to part-time employment consistent with the pattern of hours previously worked.
- (e) Any request under this clause 12.6 must be in writing and provided to the Employer.

- (f) Where a regular casual Employee seeks to convert to full-time or part-time employment, the Employer may agree to or refuse the request, but the request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after there has been consultation with the Employee.
- (g) Reasonable grounds for refusal include that:
 - (i) it would require a significant adjustment to the casual Employee's hours of work in order for the Employee to be engaged as a full-time or part time Employee in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement – that is, the casual Employee is not truly a regular casual Employee as defined in clause 12.6(b);
 - (ii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the regular casual Employee's position will cease to exist within the next 12 months;
 - (iii) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the hours of work which the regular casual Employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months; or
 - (iv) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that there will be a significant change in the days and/or times at which the Employee's hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the Employee is available to work.
- (h) For any ground of refusal to be reasonable, it must be based on facts which are known or reasonably foreseeable.
- (i) Where the Employer refuses a regular casual Employee's request to convert, the Employer must provide the casual Employee with the Employer's reasons for refusal in writing within 21 days of the request being made. If the Employee does not accept the Employer's refusal, this will constitute a dispute that will be dealt with under the dispute resolution procedure in clause 9. Under that procedure, the Employee or the Employer may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission if the dispute cannot be resolved at the workplace level.
- (j) Where it is agreed that a casual Employee will have their employment converted to full-time or part-time employment as provided for in this clause, the Employer and Employee must discuss and record in writing:
 - (i) the form of employment to which the Employee will convert – that is, full-time or part-time employment; and
 - (ii) if it is agreed that the Employee will become a part-time Employee, the matters referred to in clause 12.3(b).
- (k) The conversion will take effect from the start of the next pay cycle following such agreement being reached unless otherwise agreed.
- (l) Once a casual Employee has converted to full-time or part-time employment, the Employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of the Employer.
- (m) A casual Employee must not be engaged and re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage), or have their hours reduced or varied, in order to avoid any right or obligation under this clause.
- (n) Nothing in this clause obliges a regular casual Employee to convert to full-time or part-time employment, nor permits an employer to require a regular casual employee to so convert.
- (o) Nothing in this clause requires the Employer to increase the hours of a regular casual Employee seeking conversion to full-time or part-time employment.
- (p) The Employer must provide a casual Employee, whether a regular casual Employee or not, with a copy of the provisions of this subclause within the first 12 months of the Employee's first engagement to perform work. In respect of casual Employees already employed as at the operative date of the Agreement, the Employer must provide such employees with a copy of the provisions of this subclause by 1 January 2021.

40.6 Cashing out of Annual Leave

- (a) Annual leave credited to an Employee may be cashed out, subject to the following conditions:

 - (iii) the Employee must be paid at least the full amount that would have been payable to the Employee had the Employee taken the leave that the Employee has forgone.

- 42.2 Payment for Work Done on Public Holidays

- (b) All Employees, except as provided at clause 55.2(c) are required to renew their Police Check at their own expense.
- (c) With regards to a full-time Employee with over 2.5 years' service with the Employer:
 - (i) the Employer agrees to pay the cost of the renewal of an Employee's Police Check who is required to renew a Police Check due to the upcoming expiry of a current check; or
 - (ii) if agreed with the Employer prior to obtaining the renewed Police Check, reimburse an Employee the cost of a Police Check renewal. Reimbursement is condition upon submitting a receipt or evidence satisfactory to the Employer of the payment.
- (d) In accordance with obligations contained in the Aged Care Act 1997 (Cth), and as set out under clause 14 Suspension, where an Employee does not maintain a current and satisfactory Police Check, they will be stood down without pay until such time as the Police Check is provided to the Employer.
- (e) Where an Employee has an accrued annual leave entitlement they may request to take annual leave during the period of the period they are unable to be rostered subject to the approval of the Employer.
- (f) Failure to provide and maintain a current Police Check may result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

55.3 Police Check Status Change

- (a) If an Employee's Police Check status changes, or may change (subject to the completion of legal proceedings) prior to the expiry of the existing Police Check, the Employee is required to advise the Employer of the circumstances and potential status change.
- (b) Where a Police Check is requested by the Employer, or submitted by an Employee, between Police Checks as a result of a status check change, or potential status check change, the Employee is liable for the cost of that Police Check.
- (c) Upon notification of a Police Check status change the Employer will decide whether the change, or potential change, impacts the Employee's capability and right to work and discuss the impact of that status change with the Employee.
- (d) The Employer is under no obligation to provide alternative employment to an Employee who can no longer perform their duties because they do not have a satisfactory Police Check.

56. Influenza Vaccination

- 56.1 Where an Employer provides Employees with access to influenza vaccinations on an annual basis at the workplace, or an alternative site nominated by the Employer, the Employer will pay for the cost associated with the influenza vaccine.
- 56.2 An Employer may agree for an Employee to make private arrangements to get the influenza vaccination. Where the Employer agrees to private arrangements, they will reimburse the Employee, limited to the cost of the influenza vaccine and only upon receipt of evidence of purchase of the vaccine, once in a twelve month period. Where there is no agreement for private arrangement reimbursement, the Employer is not obligated to reimburse the Employee.
- 56.3 The inclusion of this clause does not create a new obligation for the Employer to offer an influenza vaccine, nor does it create an obligation on an Employee to receive or get the influenza vaccine. This clause also does not require an Employer to maintain offering the influenza vaccine, or reimbursement of the vaccination cost, should they elect at anytime throughout the operation of this agreement to discontinue offering the influenza vaccination.

57. Supported Wage System

The Supported Wage provisions are set out in Schedule E – Supported Wage System.

58. Aged Care Work Value Cases

- 58.1 The Employer recognises that there are currently three work value applications before the Fair Work Commission to vary the rates of pay and classifications in three of the aged care sector awards. These applications are Fair Work Commission Matter Numbers AM2020/99, AM2021/63 and AM2021/65.
- 58.2 The Employer agrees to review the rates of pay in Tables 1 – 4 of this Agreement when the Fair Work Commission Decision regarding Matter Numbers AM2020/99, AM2021/63 and AM2021/65 is published and all three of these listed applications are finalised.
- 58.3 The review referred to in clause 58.2 has the purpose to consider whether Government funding is available to the Employer to fund the payment of wage rates that are above those payable under the applicable modern awards. Upon concluding this review, the Employer must advise Employees as to whether they will be able to pay wages rates higher than those payable under the applicable modern awards. If Employees are to be paid higher rates, the Employer must put in writing to Employees what the new rates will be and when these new increased rates will apply.

59. No Further Claims

- 59.1 The parties bound by this agreement acknowledge that this Agreement settles all claims in relation to the terms and conditions of employment of the Employees to whom it applies and agree that they will not pursue any extra claims during the term of this Agreement.
- 59.2 Subject to an Employer meeting its obligations to consult arising under this Agreement or a contract of employment, it is not the intent of this provision to inhibit, limit or restrict an Employer's right or ability to introduce change at the workplace.

60. Savings Clause

No Employee shall suffer a reduction to total accrued annual leave (including counter leave and/or additional annual leave in lieu of payment for public holidays worked), as at the date that this Agreement commences being reduced.

Schedule A – Nursing Classification Definitions

Progression through pay points

Progression for all classifications for which there is more than one pay point will be by annual movement to the next pay point. For the purpose of yearly progression based on service and experience an Employee must complete 1786 hours of experience, having regard to the acquisition and use of skill described in the definitions contained in Schedule A – Nursing Classification Definitions and knowledge gained through experience in the practice settings over such a period.

Nursing Care

Nursing care means: Nursing care carried out by Nursing Assistants in aged care, home care and community care contexts is essentially a team effort where the goals of care are determined by the supervising nurse via the care plan for each individual and the policies and protocols of the employing organisation. Care includes attending to the bio-psycho-social needs of residents as well as ensuring that the environment of care and lifestyle activities is safe and conducive to the wellbeing of residents, visitors and other staff.

A.1 Nursing Assistant Year 1, Year 2, Year 3 and Experienced (Thereafter)

Nursing Assistants also otherwise known as Assistants in Nursing, provide nursing, care and other duties under the direction of a Registered Nurse or Enrolled Nurse. Experienced Nursing Assistants are those classified at thereafter level.

The primary role of Nursing Assistants in nursing and care contexts is to observe and report to their supervising nurse about the processes involved in delivering services and the outcomes of that intervention or service.

Where specific nursing tasks or responsibilities have been appropriately delegated to the Nursing Assistant, the Nursing Assistant should make their supervising nurse aware of any impediment to carrying out the delegation.

Schedule B – Aged Care Classifications

- (a) has completed three months continuous employment; and
- (b) has performed basic duties.

Classifying Existing Employees

Information regarding the Aged Care Classification pay point system under clause 18 – Minimum Weekly Wages:

The pay points under each classification at clause 18 – Minimum Weekly Wages have been established to assist Employers to understand how existing Employees will be paid under this agreement.

Each pay point has the letter “A” or “C” adjacent to it, for the following reasons:

For those pay points with the letter A, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA.

For those pay points with the letter C, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA.

The equivalent classifications under those NAPSA's have been inserted in brackets next to the relevant pay points. The purpose of inserting the equivalent classifications under the NAPSA's is to provide logical examples of how Employees classified under the Aged Care NAPSA's are likely to be classified under this agreement.

To ensure Employees are consistently being progressed in the same pay point system, Employers should not progress Employees from pay points “A” to “C”, i.e. from one NAPSA to the other. If progression is appropriate, Employees should only progress from pay points “A” to “A” or pay points “C” to “C”.

For example, if an Employee was appointed as a Aged Care Level One, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A, if this Employee was to progress to Aged Care Level two, the Employee would be classified as Aged Care Level Two, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A.

Where there is no equivalent classification under the NAPSA's, the modern award classification will apply.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, reference should also, always be given to the historical definitions, position descriptors and tasks set out in either of the following industry NAPSAs, which applied to the Employer prior to 1 January 2010, when classifying Employees.

Classifying New Employees

When classifying new Employees, Employers should give consideration to the relevant NAPSA that would have applied to their organisation, i.e. If an organisation is for profit, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Aged Care General Services (State) Award (now a NAPSA); alternatively if an organisation is not for profit or charitable, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Services Sector (State) Award (now a NAPSA).

Once this has been established, Employers should appoint new Employees according to basic duties and indicative tasks under the Aged Care Level 1 to 7, together with the Employee's skill, knowledge, experience and competence.

When classifying new Employees, an Employer may request the Employee to provide satisfactory documentary evidence detailing any other ‘service’ or ‘experience’ within the industry for the purpose of assisting the Employer to appoint the Employee in the most appropriate classification. In the absence, of such satisfactory evidence, the Employer shall classify the Employee at the level for which proof has been provided.
