- (b) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 8.1.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that no employer is required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the employer's interests.

9. Dispute resolution

- 9.1 In the event of a dispute about any matter, under this Agreement, or the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor. If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.
- 9.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this agreement or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 9.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to FWA.
- 9.3 Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, the parties agree that FWA shall have the power to do all such things as are necessary for the just resolution of the dispute including mediation, conciliation and finally arbitration.
- 9.4 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, the FWA may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

11. Types of employment

11.1 Employment categories

Employees under this agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:

- (a) full-time;
- (b) part-time; or
- (c) casual.

At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time or casual basis. An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

11.2 Full-time employment

A full-time employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 21 (a) of this agreement.

11.3 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) Before commencing part-time employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing the guarantee minimum number of hours to be worked and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours.
- (c) A part-time employee will be paid a minimum of two hours pay for each engagement.
- (d) The terms of the agreement in (b) may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.
- (e) Unless otherwise stated, the terms of this agreement will apply on a pro rata basis to part-time employees on the basis that the ordinary weekly hours for full-time employees are 38.

11.4 Annual review of part-time hours

- (a) At the request of an employee, the hours worked by the employee will be reviewed annually. Where the employee is regularly working more than their specified contract hours then such contract hours shall be adjusted by the employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked. The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers compensation; and
 - (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (b) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review, should, however, be such as to readily reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

11.5 Casual employment

- (a) A casual employee is an employee engaged as such on an hourly basis.
- (b) A casual employee will be paid an hourly rate equal to 1/38th of the weekly rate appropriate to the employee's classification plus a casual loading of 20%. This casual loading will apply on a transitional basis upon the commencement of this agreement and will increase in the following increments:

First pay period on or after

Casual Loading payable

1 July 2011	21.25%
1 July 2012	22.5%
1 July 2013	23.75
1 July 2014	25%

- (c) Casual employees will be paid the following minimum number of hours for each engagement:
- (i) Home care employees – 1 hour
 - (ii) all other employees – 2 hours.
- (d) A casual employee will be paid shift allowances calculated on the ordinary rate of pay excluding the casual loading with the casual loading component then added to the penalty rate of pay.

Overtime rates shall only be payable to a casual when he/she works in excess of 38 hours per week or 76 hours per fortnight depending on the pay period. Payment of such overtime penalties shall be on the hourly rate (1/38th) and be in lieu of the casual loading.

11.6 Casual Conversion

- (a) A casual employee who has been rostered on a regular and systematic basis over a period of 26 weeks has the right to request conversion to permanent employment:
- (i) on a full-time basis where the employee has worked 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week (excluding overtime) throughout the period of casual employment; or
 - (ii) on a permanent part-time basis where the employee has worked a regular number of hours each week or fortnight (depending upon the roster) throughout the period of casual employment. Such part-time engagement would be on the basis of the same number of hours as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the employer and the employee.
- (b) The employer may consent to or refuse the request, but shall not unreasonably withhold agreement to such a request. Arbitration of an employee's request for conversion may only occur by agreement of the employer and the relevant Association.
- (c) Casual conversion will not apply where a casual has covered absences of permanent staff that are expected to return to work.

12.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.

12.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this agreement or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this agreement in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

12.3 Job search entitlement

13.1 An employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by the employer if the employee's employment is terminated:

13.4. Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the

Each pay point has the letter “A” or “C” adjacent to it, for the following reasons:

- For those pay points with the letter A, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA.
- For those pay points with the letter C, the equivalent classification for that pay point was under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA.

The equivalent classifications under those NAPSA’s have been inserted in brackets next to the relevant pay points. The purpose of inserting the equivalent classifications under the NAPSA’s is to provide logical examples of how employees classified under the Aged Care NAPSA’s are likely to be classified under this agreement.

Example B.1:

Aged Care Employee Level One

Laundry Hand

Pay point 1C (CSE New Entrant)

The “C” represents that this pay point has been derived from the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA

The “(CSE New Entrant)” represents that the most logical classification for the Laundry Hand, pay point 1C, under the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Care Services (State) NAPSA is the Care Service Employee New Entrant.

Example B.2:

Aged Care Employee Level One

Laundry Hand

Pay point 2A (GSO Grade 1)

The "A" represents that this pay point has been derived from the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA

The "(GSO Grade 1)" represents that the most logical classification for the Laundry Hand, pay point 2A, under the Aged Care General Services (State) NAPSA is the General Services Officer Grade 1.

To ensure employees are consistently being progressed in the same pay point system, employers should not progress employees from pay points "A" to "C", ie, from one NAPSA to the other. If progression is appropriate, employees should only progress from pay points "A" to "A" or pay points "B" to "B".

For example, if an employee was appointed as a Aged Care Level One, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A, if this employee was to progress to Aged Care Level Two, the employee would be classified as Aged Care Level Two, Laundry Hand, pay point 1A.

Where there is no equivalent classification under the NAPSA's, the modern award classification will apply.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, reference should also, always be given to the historical definitions, position descriptors and tasks set out in either of the following industry NAPSAs, which applied to the employer prior to 1 January 2010, when classifying employees.

NB: Over time and once the modern award transition process is underway, this pay point system will be simplified for future agreements.

Classifying new employees:

When classifying new employees, employers should give consideration to the relevant NAPSA that would have applied to their organisation, ie:

- If an organisation is for profit, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Aged Care General Services (State) Award (now a NAPSA); alternatively
- If an organisation is not for profit or charitable, the most likely NAPSA that would apply is the Charitable Sector Aged and Disability Services Sector (State) Award (now a NAPSA).

Once this has been established, employers should appoint new employees according to basic duties and indicative tasks under the Aged Care Level 1 to 7, together with the employee's skill, knowledge, experience and competence.

When classifying new employees, an employer may request the employee to provide satisfactory documentary evidence detailing any other 'service' or 'experience' within the industry for the purpose of assisting the employer to appoint the employee in the most appropriate classification. In the absence, of such satisfactory evidence, the employer shall classify the employee at the level for which proof has been provided.
