This course will provide branch officials and activists with an overview of a range of common workplace issues for which they might be required to support members or provide representation. Members will attend the professional education session Law, Ethics and Professional Standards in nursing and midwifery.

WINNING AT WORK (Two-day course)

WHEN AND WHERE?

- 23-24 April
- 20-21 August

8:30am registration for 9am start, 5pm close
NSWNMA Waterloo Office or CBD venue

This course is aimed at members who are ready to take it up a notch. Perhaps there's a long standing issue at work that needs a bigger campaign, perhaps your branch is involved in the state-wide issues or perhaps you want to develop skills to campaign in your community. This two day course explores how we achieve change and how we encourage decision makers to make the right choice for our communities.

The NSWNMA also offers the courses on assisting members during fact finding and disciplinary processes and a range of professional development subjects. For more information on any of these courses please give us a call on 1300 367 962 or email us at gensec@nswnma.asn.au

Two-day course • 9am – 5pm

NSWNMA Office • 50 O’Dea Avenue, Waterloo

LET’S GET ACTIVE TO TACKLE WORKPLACE BULLYING AND RACISM.

Are you interested in knowing more about how your Union can assist in tackling workplace racism?

Are you keen to learn new skills to help you and your colleagues achieve workplaces that are culturally safe and supportive?

Sign up for this course and learn how to make the most of your Union. Help solve workplace issues that are important to you, learn how to take Bystander Action to tackle racism and bullying and learn how to have difficult conversations about racism.

This course is open to all NSWNMA members and is free. You may also be eligible for free travel, overnight accommodation and pay for any missed work.

COURSE PROGRAM

Day 1

- Union history
- Get to know our union
- Branches, resolutions and democracy
- the world as it is and the world as it should be

Day 2

- Power at work
- Mapping, recruitment and having powerful conversations (CALD affinity group)
- Visas, activism, discrimination and the law
- Tackling racism at work – having a conversation around racism and bystander training

The NSWNMA also offers the courses on assisting members during fact finding and disciplinary processes and a range of professional development subjects. For more information on any of these courses please give us a call on 1300 367 962 or email us at gensec@nswnma.asn.au
